MDL No. 2641

CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER NO. 2

11 This Order Relates to: All Actions
12

13 The Court held a lengthy case management conference with the parties on 14 October 29, 2015. Before the conference, the parties submitted a proposed agenda and a 15 memorandum setting forth positions of Plaintiffs and Defendants on various issues.
16 Doc. 174. The Court entered an order with a more detailed agenda on October 19, 2015.
17 Doc. 203. This order will generally follow the topics set forth in the Court's agenda.

18 I. Identification and Selection of Parties' Leadership.

19 The Court has entered Case Management No. 1, which establishes Plaintiffs'
20 Leadership Counsel. By November 6, 2015, Plaintiffs' Lead/Liaison Counsel shall 21 submit to the Court a proposed Case Management Order concerning: (a) the duties and 22 authority of Plaintiffs' Leadership Counsel in coordinating pretrial practice in this MDL; 23 (b) the establishment and operation of a common fund for eventual payment and 24 reimbursement of attorneys and their firms for common benefit work; (c) a procedure for 25 auditing the common benefit work of Plaintiffs' attorneys and their firms; (d) a procedure
26 for making quarterly reports to the Court regarding the audits and the common benefit 27 work performed by attorneys and their firms; (e) guidelines for eventual fee applications 28 and cost reimbursement, including record-keeping requirements, time-keeping

1 requirements (see, e.g., Local Rule of Civil Procedure 54.2(e)), staffing limitations for 2 various tasks, acceptable hourly rates, when travel time can be billed, reimbursable
3 expenses (what is and is not reimbursable), and acceptable levels of expense 4 reimbursement; (f) procedures or agreements designed to avoid the duplication of 5 common benefit discovery already completed in some of the MDL cases; and (g) periodic 6 status reports on coordination with state cases and other relevant matters.

7 II. Protective and Rule 502 Orders.

8 By November 6, 2015, the parties shall jointly submit to the Court a proposed
9 protective order, including Rule 502 provisions, for all cases in this MDL. If the order 10 addresses the filing of confidential documents in court, it shall not say that such 11 documents may be filed under seal. Instead, it should say that any party seeking to file a 12 confidential document under seal shall comply with Local Rule of Civil Procedure 5.6.

13 III. ESI Protocol.

14 By November 30, 2015, the parties shall jointly present to the Court an ESI
15 Protocol addressing format of production, preservation, and other relevant ESI-discovery
16 matters. If the parties are unable to reach agreement on all aspects of the ESI Protocol, 17 they shall file a joint report setting forth the areas of agreement and disagreement and 18 recommending a procedure for resolving disagreements.

19 IV. Discovery.

20 A. Discovery Relevant Only to Individual Cases.

21 By November 6, 2015, the parties shall propose to the Court profile forms to be 22 completed by Plaintiffs and Defendants with respect to each new case added to this 23 MDL. The intent will be to provide the parties with basic and relevant information about 24 each new case. With the exception of bellwether cases, the Court generally will not 25 oversee discovery relevant only to individual cases. It is anticipated that such discovery
26 will be conducted in transferor districts after this MDL is completed.

27 ///

1 B. Binding Effect of Completed Discovery.

2 The parties will discuss whether agreement can be reached on the binding effect
3 already-completed discovery will have in cases filed after the date of the discovery. If 4 the parties are able to reach agreement, they shall jointly submit a stipulation to the Court
5 by December 18, 2015. If the parties are unable to reach agreement, each side shall file a 6 10-page memorandum setting forth its position with respect to the effect of the already-
7 completed discovery by December 18, 2015. Each side may file a 5-page response
8 memorandum by January 8, 2016.

9 C. First-Phase Discovery.

10 By January 15, 2016, the parties shall complete a first phase of MDL discovery
11 which includes the following:

12 1. Defendants shall provide an updated production of complaint
13 (adverse event) files relating to the Recovery, G2, G2X, and G2 Express filters, and shall 14 produce complaint (adverse event) files relating to the Eclipse, Meridian, and Denali
15 filters.

16 2. Defendants shall produce updated versions of Bard's Adverse Event
17 Tracking System for the various filters set forth immediately above.

18 3. By November 10, 2015, Defendants shall produce the documents
19 described by defense counsel during the case management conference related to the FDA 20 investigation and warning letter.

21 4. Plaintiffs may take a Rule 30(b)(6) deposition with respect to the 22 FDA investigation and warning letter.

23 5. Kay Fuller shall be deposed.

24 D. Conferences Regarding Second Phase of Discovery.

25 The parties shall meet and confer with respect to the following discovery issues, 26 and, by January 20, 2016, provide the Court with a joint report regarding their 27 discussions. Areas of agreement and disagreement will be clearly identified, and each 28

1 party's position shall be set forth. The parties shall propose, jointly if possible,
2 procedures for resolving their disagreements.

3 1. Updated collections and productions of previously searched
4 "custodians" and ESI sources. In discussing this topic, the parties should avoid 5 duplicative discovery, but relevant information not previously searched for should be 6 considered as a possible subject of discovery.

7 2. Production of ESI from custodians involved with later-generation
8 filter devices or employed at later time frames.

9 3. Further discovery related to the FDA inspection and warning letter.

10 4. ESI and documents that have been previously withheld, if any, as to 11 Defendant's later-generation devices, such as the Eclipse, Meridian, and Denali filters.

12 5. Discovery related to the Simon Nitinol filter.

13 6. Discovery regarding the Recovery Cone Removal System design, 14 design changes, corrective actions, reasons why design changes were made, regulatory 15 communications, and adverse event reports.

16 7. Custodial files and other discovery with respect to sales and 17 marketing personnel. In addressing this issue, the parties should consider whether 18 discovery focusing on higher-level sales and marketing personnel should be undertaken 19 before discovery of lower-level personnel. The parties should also consider whether 20 sales and marketing discovery should be postponed until case-specific discovery is 21 undertaken with respect to bellwether cases.

22 8. Pending Rule 30(b)(6) deposition notices in cases consolidated in 23 this MDL or state-court cases.

24 9. Additional depositions of corporate and third party witnesses.

25 10. Rule 26 expert disclosures and expert depositions.

26 11. Discovery related to ESI preservation issues.

27 ///

28 ///

1 V. Issues to be Briefed.

2 A. Lehmann Report.

3 Defendants shall file a motion for protective order with respect to the Lehmann
4 Report, including evidentiary material, by November 30, 2015. Plaintiffs shall file a
5 response, including evidentiary material, by December 18, 2015. Defendants shall file a
6 reply by January 8, 2016. The parties' briefs should address whether the Lehmann
7 Report constitutes work product, whether an evidentiary hearing is needed, and what 8 effect the Court's ruling should have in cases where this issue has already been decided.

9 B. Privilege Logs.

10 By November 13, 2015, Defendants shall provide to Plaintiffs the current version
11 of all privilege logs. By the same date, Defendants shall identify for Plaintiffs all 12 documents that previously were listed on privilege logs but subsequently were produced 13 to Plaintiffs. A chart showing privilege log control numbers and bates numbers of 14 produced documents likely would be most helpful.

15 Between November 13, 2015 and early January, 2016, the parties should engage in 16 the informal privilege log exchange proposed by Defendants during the case management
17 conference. The purpose of this exchange will be to see if the parties can reach
18 agreement on privilege log issues. For purposes of the informal exchange, the parties 19 should apply the work product law set forth in the magistrate judge's decision in the 20 Nevada case, unless they agree upon different legal standards. This paragraph will not 21 preclude parties from arguing for a different legal standard if privilege log issues must be 22 resolved by the Court.

23 By January 20, 2016, the parties shall provide the Court with a joint report on 24 their privilege log efforts, identifying areas of agreement and disagreement, setting forth 25 the parties' positions on the disagreements, and proposing procedures for resolution of 26 any remaining outstanding issues.

27 ///

1 VI. Pleading and Filing Procedures.

2 By November 30, 2015 the parties shall provide to the Court a master complaint
3 drafted by Plaintiffs, a master answer drafted by Defendants, and templates of short-form
4 complaints and answers agreed upon by the parties. The parties shall also submit to the 5 Court a proposed case management order which provides that the master complaint and 6 master answer will be filed in the master docket in this MDL proceeding; that new cases
7 may be filed in the District of Arizona using the short-form complaint; that filing of a
8 short-form complaint in the District of Arizona will not mean that the trial in that case
9 will be held in Arizona, but instead will mean that the case will be transferred to the 10 appropriate home district at the conclusion of this MDL; that Defendants may file a short-
11 form answer in response to a short-form complaint; and that service of process in cases 12 filed in the District of Arizona using the short-form complaint may be made by email on 13 defense counsel.¹

14 The parties shall include in the jointly-submitted case management order a 15 provision identifying cases in which the master complaint and master answer will not 16 become the operative pleadings – where the existing complaints and answers will remain
17 the operative pleadings. The master complaint and answer will become the operative 18 pleadings in all other cases in this MDL.

19 VII. Handling of Advanced Cases.

20 This MDL includes some cases in which discovery and motion practice has been 21 completed. The Court does not intend to reopen already-decided Daubert motions or 22 motions for summary judgment in these cases. The parties agree, however, that these 23 cases should not be remanded to transferor courts at the present time. Rather, they will 24 remain a part of the MDL and will be considered as possible bellwether cases in the 25 future.

27 ¹ The parties should address an additional issue in their November 30 filing. If 28 cases are filed in Arizona under such a case management order, what is the legal basis upon which they later would be transferred to their home district? Because they would not originally have been filed in another district, transfer under 28 U.S.C. § 1407(a) presumably would not be available.

1 VIII. Coordination with State Court Litigation.

2 Plaintiffs' Lead/Liaison Counsel shall, through the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee,
3 coordinate discovery and motion practice in this MDL proceeding with state court cases.
4 As an immediate matter, Plaintiffs' counsel shall coordinate discovery of Hill &
5 Knowlton with state cases.

6 IX. Next Case Management Conference.

7 The Court will hold a second case management conference on January 29, 2016
8 at 9:00 a.m. The parties should file a joint report and proposed agenda by January 20, 9 2016, identifying issues to be addressed at the conference.² The purpose of the 10 conference will be to address matters raised in the joint report and the various filings
11 identified above. The Court will establish a second phase of fact discovery on the basis 12 of the parties' submissions and discussions at the case management conference. The 13 Court will also confer with the parties about a schedule for expert disclosures,
14 depositions, and Daubert motions. Because many of the cases in this MDL proceeding
15 have involved no expert discovery, the Court concludes that full Rule 26 disclosures, 16 followed by depositions and Daubert motions, should be conducted in this MDL. The 17 effect of that discovery and motion practice in cases where experts have already been 18 disclosed will be addressed later.

19 X. Other Matters.

20 A. Settlement Talks. After conferring with the parties, the Court concluded 21 that it should not require global settlement talks at this stage of the litigation. The 22 number and nature of cases to be added to this MDL is yet to be determined, and the 23 scale of this litigation will be an important factor in settlement efforts. The Court will 24 raise this issue with the parties in the future.

25 B. Discovery Disputes. The parties shall not file written discovery motions
26 without leave of Court. If a discovery dispute arises, the parties promptly shall contact

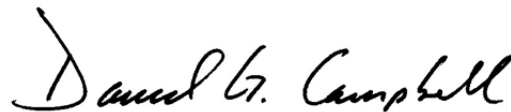

27 ² Among other topics, the joint report should identify pending motions in all MDL 28 cases and set forth the parties' recommendation as to what the Court should do with those motions.

1 the Court to request a telephone conference concerning the dispute. The Court will seek
2 to resolve the dispute during the telephone conference, and may enter appropriate orders
3 on the basis of the telephone conference. The Court may order written briefing if it does 4 not resolve the dispute during the telephone conference.³ Parties shall not contact the 5 Court concerning a discovery dispute without first seeking to resolve the matter through 6 personal consultation and sincere effort as required by Local Rule of Civil Procedure 7 7.2(j).

8 C. Briefing Requirements. All memoranda filed with the Court shall comply
9 with Local Rule of Civil Procedure 7.1(b) requiring 13 point font in text and footnotes.
10 Citations in support of any assertion in the text shall be included in the text, not in 11 footnotes.

12 D. Rule 34 Responses. Rule 34 responses shall comply with the amended
13 Rule 34 to become effective on December 1, 2015.

14 Dated this 30th day of October, 2015.

16 The parties have submitted a Master Long Form Complaint and Jury Demand

20 The parties have also submitted a proposed Short Form Complaint, a copy of which is 21 attached to this order. The Court also finds this proposed pleading to be sufficient.

22 IT IS ORDERED:

On or after December 28, 2015, any plaintiff whose case would be subject to transfer to MDL 2641 may file his or her case directly in this Court by using the Short Form Complaint. If such a case is filed in this Court without the use of the Short Form Complaint, Plaintiffs’ Co-Lead Counsel shall promptly advise the filing party to file an amended complaint using the Short Form Complaint. If the filing party fails to do so, Plaintiffs’ Co-Lead Counsel shall promptly notify the Court.

Defendants are not required to file answers to Short Form or Amended Short Form Complaints. An Entry of Appearance shall constitute a denial of all allegations in the Short Form or Amended Short Form Complaints except as herein provided, and an assertion of all defenses included in the Master Responsive Pleading. By filing an Entry of Appearance in response to a Short Form Complaint, in lieu of an answer, Defendants do not waive any defenses, including jurisdictional and service defenses.

Defendants shall have 60 days from the entry of this order to file any motion for failure of the Master Complaint to state a claim upon which relief may be granted pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) and 12(h)(2), and Plaintiff’s shall have 30 days to respond.

Civil actions in this MDL were transferred to this Court by the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation for coordinated or consolidated pretrial proceedings pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1407. Upon completion of the pretrial proceedings related to a civil action as determined by this Court, the case shall be transferred pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a) or § 1406(a) to the District Court identified in the Short Form Complaint, provided the

1 parties choose not to waive Lexecon, Inc. v. Milberg Weiss Bershad Hynes & Lerach, 523
2 U.S. 26 (1998). The fact that a case was filed directly in this District and MDL
3 proceeding shall not constitute a determination by this Court that jurisdiction or venue are 4 proper in this District, and shall not result in this Court being deemed the “transferor
5 court” for purposes of this MDL. In addition, filing a Short Form Complaint in this 6 District shall have no impact on the conflict of law rules to be applied to the case. Instead,
7 the law of the jurisdiction where the case is ultimately transferred will govern any conflict
8 of law. Prior to transfer, Defendants may object to the district specified in the Short Form
9 Complaint, based on venue or jurisdiction (including a lack of personal jurisdiction based 10 on Daimler AG v. Bauman, 134 S. Ct. 746 (2014)), and propose an alternative jurisdiction
11 for the Court’s consideration.

12 Subject to the conditions set forth in this order, Defendant C.R. Bard, Inc. and Bard
13 Peripheral Vascular, Inc. (collectively “Bard”) waive service of process in cases filed in 14 this Court using the Short Form Complaint and in which they are named as defendants
15 and one or more IVC filter products either manufactured or distributed by Bard is alleged 16 to be at issue. For such cases, Plaintiffs shall send a Short Form Complaint and a request
17 for waiver of service pursuant to the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 4 to Richard B. North, 18 Jr. by email to richard.north@nelsonmullins.com; maria.turner@nelsonmullins.com; and 19 matthew.lerner@nelsonmullins.com. Counsel for Bard shall return the signed waiver
20 requests to the Court within the time permitted by Fed. R. Civ. P. 4. Plaintiffs submitting
21 a request for waiver shall not seek to hold Bard in default for failure to timely answer or 22 otherwise respond to a complaint in which service has been accomplished pursuant to the 23 terms of this order without first giving Bard written notice of the alleged default and ten
24 business days in which to cure any alleged default.

25 Prior to a Plaintiff’s attorney filing a Short Form Complaint in this Court, that 26 attorney must register for or already have a District of Arizona CM/ECF log-in name and 27 password. If the Plaintiff’s attorney does not already have a District of Arizona CM/ECF
28 log-in name and password, that attorney must file the Short Form Complaint in paper

1 form with the Clerk of Court and simultaneously file an Application of Attorney for
2 Admission to Practice Pro Hac Vice pursuant to LRCiv 83.1(b)(2) (including all necessary
3 attachments and filing fee).

Attorneys for Plaintiffs

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

No. MD-15-02641-PHX-DGC

MASTER COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES FOR INDIVIDUAL CLAIMS

Plaintiffs in this consolidated action, collectively and through the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee ("PSC") as duly authorized representatives of all Plaintiffs in MDL 2641, hereby file this Master Complaint for Damages for Individual Claims ("Master Complaint") against Defendants C.R. BARD, INC. and BARD PERIPHERAL VASCULAR, INC. (collectively, "Bard" or "Defendants") in MDL 2641.

This Master Complaint is created for the convenience of the Court and all parties as a "long form" complaint giving notice, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 8 and Case Management Order 2, of allegations that some or all Plaintiffs in cases consolidated in this MDL allege against Bard, whether those Plaintiffs' claims are for personal injury or wrongful

1 death, and whether brought by an individual person alleging injury or statutory or common
2 law beneficiaries of claims for wrongful death of a Plaintiff or Plaintiffs' decedent.¹

3 This Master Complaint does not necessarily include all claims asserted in all of the 4 actions transferred to this Court, and it is not intended to consolidate for any purpose the 5 separate claims of Plaintiffs herein. This Master Complaint also does not constitute a waiver
6 or dismissal of any actions or claims asserted in those individual actions, and no Plaintiff 7 relinquishes the right to amend their individual complaints to seek any additional claims as 8 discovery proceeds.

9 Accordingly, Plaintiffs in MDL No. 2641 allege as follows:

10 INTRODUCTORY ALLEGATIONS

11 1. Plaintiffs bring this action for personal injuries and/or wrongful death damages 12 suffered by an injured or deceased party or parties as a direct and proximate result of an 13 injured or deceased party being implanted with a defective and unreasonably dangerous
14 Inferior Vena Cava ("IVC") filter medical device manufactured by Bard.

15 2. The subject IVC filters are part of Bard's IVC "retrievable" filter product line
16 and include the following devices: Recovery[®], G2[®], G2[®]X (G2 Express[®]), Eclipse[®],
17 Meridian[®] and Denali[®] (for convenience, these devices will be referred to in this complaint
18 under the generic term "Bard IVC Filters"). The term "Bard IVC Filters" also includes Bard's 19 Recovery[®] Cone Removal System[®].

21 ¹ Which causes of actions and counts are asserted in individual actions and certain claimant-
22 or claim-specific allegations will be conveyed to Defendants via individual "short form" complaints or profile forms as agreed upon by the parties.

3. Plaintiffs' claims for damages all relate to Bard's design, manufacture, sale, testing, marketing, labeling, advertising, promotion, and/or distribution of Bard IVC Filters.

4. The Bard IVC Filters that are the subject of this action all reached Plaintiffs and their physicians without substantial change in condition from the time they left Bard's possession.

5. Plaintiffs and their physicians used the Bard IVC Filters in the manner in which they were intended.

6. Bard is solely responsible for any alleged design, manufacture or informational defect Bard IVC Filters contain.

7. Bard does not allege that any other person or entity is comparatively at fault for any alleged design, manufacture, or informational defect Bard IVC Filters contain.

PARTIES

8. Plaintiffs are those persons and estates that have brought or will bring actions seeking wrongful death and/or personal injury damages caused by Bard IVC Filters. The identities of individual action plaintiffs will be identified in their “Short Form Complaint.”

9. Plaintiffs are persons injured, killed, or otherwise harmed by Bard IVC Filters. Depending on the law applicable to a particular plaintiff or plaintiffs' claims, Plaintiffs may include deceased individuals and/or their spouses, children, parents, or personal representatives, as well as injured individuals and/or their spouses, children, parents, next friends, legal guardians, conservators, or other authorized representatives.

10. As a direct and proximate result of having Bard IVC Filters implanted in them, Plaintiffs named in their respective Short Form Complaints have suffered permanent and

1 continuous injuries and damages. The injuries suffered and damages sought by Plaintiffs
2 (hereafter, “Injuries and Damages”) may include, without limitation: wrongful death of a
3 spouse, child, parent, or other legally-cognizable relationship; pain and suffering; bodily
4 injuries of any type (including, without limitation, perforation of organs and venous structures,
5 thromboembolic events, and cardiovascular injuries); disability; impairment; scarring;
6 disfigurement; dismemberment; physical; emotional and psychological trauma; anxiety;
7 diminished capacity; loss of consortium; hedonic damages; past medical expenses; future
8 medical expenses; caregiving costs; lost wages; loss of earning capacity; and any other form of 9 damages under the law of any forum which governs any individual case.

10 11. Defendant C.R. Bard, Inc. (“C.R. Bard”) is a corporation duly organized and 11 existing under the laws of the state of Delaware and has its principal place of business in New 12 Jersey. Bard, at all times relevant to this action, designed, set specifications for,
13 manufactured, prepared, compounded, assembled, processed, marketed, distributed, and sold
14 the Recovery[®], G2[®], G2[®]X (G2 Express[®]), Eclipse[®], Meridian[®], and Denali[®] Filter Systems to 15 be implanted in patients throughout the United States including the State of Arizona and 16 Plaintiffs’ states of residence and/or injury.

17 12. Defendant Bard Peripheral Vascular, Inc. (“BPV”) is a wholly-owned subsidiary 18 corporation of Defendant C.R. Bard, with its principal place of business at 1625 West Third
19 Street, Tempe, Arizona. BPV, at all times relevant to this action, designed, set specifications 20 for, manufactured, prepared, compounded, assembled, processed, marketed, distributed, and 21 sold the Recovery[®], G2[®], G2[®]X(G2 Express[®]), Eclipse[®], Meridian[®], and Denali[®] Filter

1 Systems to be implanted in patients throughout the United States, including the State of 2 Arizona and Plaintiffs' states of residence and/or injury.

3 13. There exists, and at all relevant times existed, a unity of interest in ownership
4 between certain defendants and other defendants such that any individuality and separateness
5 between the certain defendants has ceased and those defendants are the alter ego of the other 6 certain defendants, and exerted control over those defendants.

7 14. Adherence to the fiction of the separate existence of these certain defendants as 8 any entity distinct from other certain defendants would permit an abuse of the corporate 9 privilege, sanction fraud, and promote injustice.

10 15. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that at all times herein
11 mentioned each of the Defendants were the agent, servant, employee, and/or joint venturer of 12 the other co-defendants, and at all said times each Defendant was acting in the full course, 13 scope, and authority of said agency, service, employment, and/or joint venture.

14 16. "Bard" or "Defendants" includes any and all parent companies, subsidiaries,
15 affiliates, divisions, franchises, partners, joint venturers, and organizational units of any kind;
16 their predecessors, successors, and assigns; their officers, directors, employees, agents,
17 representatives; and any and all other persons acting on their behalf.

18 17. At all times relevant, Bard was engaged in the business of researching,
19 designing, testing, developing, manufacturing, packaging, labeling, marketing, advertising,
20 distributing, promoting, warranting, and selling in interstate commerce Bard IVC Filters, 21 either directly or indirectly through third parties or related entities.

18. Bard develops, manufactures, sells, and distributes medical devices and surgical products throughout the United States and around the world, including Bard IVC Filters for use in various medical applications including endovascular cardiology.

19. Upon information and belief, at all relevant times, Defendants expected or should have expected that their acts would have consequences within the United States, including in the State of Arizona and in the states and territories identified in each Short Form Complaint, and said Defendants derived and continue to derive substantial revenue therefrom.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

20. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1332 because Plaintiffs and Defendants are citizens of different states, the amount in controversy for each action exceeds seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000.00) excluding interest and costs, and there is complete diversity of citizenship between each Plaintiff and Defendant.

21. This Court has personal jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1391, as BPV is domiciled in this District and all Defendants regularly conduct business in this State. Further, Defendants are present and doing business within this State and have continuous and systematic contacts in every state in the United States of America, including each Plaintiffs' states of residence.

22. Pursuant to the Transfer Order filed on August 17, 2015, it was determined:

[T]he actions in this litigation involve common questions of fact, and that centralization in the District of Arizona will serve the convenience of the parties and witnesses and promote the just and efficient conduct of the litigation. All actions involve common factual questions arising from allegations that defects in the design of Bard's retrievable inferior vena cava filters ("IVC filters") make them more likely to fracture, migrate, tilt, or perforate the inferior vena cava, causing injury. Centralization will eliminate duplicative discovery, avoid

1 inconsistent pretrial rulings (including with respect to discovery, privilege, and 2 Daubert motion practice), and conserve the resources of the parties, their counsel and the judiciary.

3 23. Pursuant to the Transfer Order filed on August 17, 2015, cases are being 4 transferred to The Honorable David G. Campbell in the United States District Court for the 5 District of Arizona, Phoenix Division, as part of the IN RE: BARD IVC FILTERS
6 PRODUCTS LIABILITY LITIGATION MDL 2641.

7 24. Pursuant to Case Management Order No. 2, federal cases against Bard relating 8 to Bard IVC Filters may be directly filed in this District.

9 BACKGROUND

10 INFERIOR VENA CAVA FILTERS GENERALLY

11 25. IVC filters were first made commercially available to the medical community in 12 the 1960s. Over the years, medical device manufacturers have introduced several different 13 designs of IVC filters.

14 26. An IVC filter is a device that is designed to filter or “catch” blood clots that 15 travel from the lower portions of the body to the heart and lungs. IVC filters were originally 16 designed to be permanently implanted in the IVC.

17 27. The IVC is a vein that returns blood to the heart from the lower portions of the 18 body. In certain people, for various reasons, blood clots travel from the vessels in the legs and 19 pelvis, through the vena cava and into the lungs. Oftentimes, these blood clots develop in the 20 deep leg veins, a condition called “deep vein thrombosis” or “DVT.” Once blood clots reach
21 the lungs, they are considered “pulmonary emboli” or “PE.” Pulmonary emboli present risks 22 to human health.

1 28. People at risk for DVT/PE can undergo medical treatment to manage the risk.
2 For example, a doctor may prescribe anticoagulant therapies such as medications like Heparin,
3 Warfarin, or Lovenox to regulate the clotting factor of the blood. In some people who are at 4 high risk for DVT/PE and who cannot manage their conditions with medications, physicians
5 may recommend surgically implanting an IVC filter to prevent thromboembolic events.

6 29. As stated above, IVC filters have been on the market for decades and were 7 permanent implants. However, use of these filters was limited primarily to patients who were 8 contraindicated for anticoagulation therapy.

9 30. In order to increase sales of these devices, Bard sought to expand the market for 10 prophylactic use among nontraditional patient populations that were temporarily at risk of 11 developing blood clots.

12 31. Specifically, Bard targeted the bariatric, trauma, orthopedic and cancer patient
13 population. Expansion to these new patient groups would triple sales and the first 14 manufacturer to market would capture market share.

15 32. At the same time, Bard was aware that physicians developed interest in filter
16 devices that could be easily removed after the risk of clotting in these new patient populations
17 subsided. This too was an opportunity to gain market share in the lucrative IVC filter market.

18 33. Other manufacturers also saw this opportunity, triggering a race to market a 19 device that provided physicians the option to retrieve the filter after the clot risk subsided.

20 34. Bard was the first medical device manufacturer to obtain FDA clearance for 21 marketing a “retrievable” IVC filter (the Bard Recovery® filter) in July 2003.
22

1 35. This “clearance” was obtained despite lack of adequate testimony on the safety
2 and efficacy of the new line of devices.

3 36. As shown below, Bard’s retrievable IVC filters have been plagued with 4 problems – all created by Bard itself – most notably, the absence of any evidence that the 5 products were effective in preventing pulmonary embolism (the very condition the product 6 was indicated to prevent).

7 37. Years after the implantation of retrievable filters into the bodies of patients,
8 scientists began to study the effectiveness of the retrievable filters – studies that Bard itself
9 had never done before placing the product on the market. As recently as October 2015, an 10 expansive article published in the Annals of Surgery concerning trauma patients inserted with 11 IVC filters concluded that IVC filters were not effective in preventing pulmonary emboli, and 12 instead actually caused thrombi to occur.

13 38. Comparing the results of over 30,000 trauma patients who had not received IVC
14 filters with those who had received them, the Annals of Surgery study published its alarming 15 results:

- 16 • Almost twice the percentage of patients with IVC filters in the study died 17 compared to those that had not received them.
- 18 • Over five times the relative number of patients with IVC filters developed 19 DVTs.
- 20 • Over four times the relative percentage of patients with filters developed 21 thromboemboli.

- Over twice the percentage of patients developed a pulmonary embolus – the very condition Bard told the FDA, physicians, and the public that its IVC Filters were designed to prevent.

39. This Annals of Surgery study – and many others referenced by it – now shows without any question that IVC filters are not only utterly ineffective but that they are themselves a health hazard.

THE RECOVERY® FILTER

A. Development and Regulatory Clearance of the Recovery® Filter

40. Bard has distributed and marketed the Simon Nitinol Filter (“SNF”) device since 1992. The SNF is a permanent filter with no option to retrieve it after implantation.

41. The SNF was initially manufactured by a company known as Nitinol Medical Technologies. In late 1999, Bard worked with Nitinol on the redesign of the SNF in order to make it retrievable. On October 19, 2001, Bard purchased the rights to manufacture, market, and sell this new, redesigned product in development at the time. This product ultimately became the Recovery® filter.

42. Bard’s purpose for making a retrievable IVC filter was to increase profits by expanding the overall IVC filter market and, in turn, Bard’s percentage share of that market.

43. Bard engaged in an aggressive marketing campaign for the filter, despite negative clinical data.

44. On November 27, 2002, Bard bypassed the more onerous Food and Drug Administration’s (“FDA’s”) approval process for new devices and obtained “clearance” under Section 510(k) of the Medical Device Amendments to the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic

1 Act to market the Recovery[®] filter as a permanent filter by claiming it was substantially
2 similar in respect to safety, efficacy, design, and materials as the SNF.

3 45. Section 510(k) permits the marketing of medical devices if the device is 4 substantially equivalent to other legally marketed predicate devices without formal review for 5 the safety or efficacy of the said device. The FDA explained the difference between the 6 510(k) process and the more rigorous “premarket approval” (PMA) process in its amicus brief
7 filed with the Third Circuit in Horn v. Thoratec Corp., which the court quoted from:

8 A manufacturer can obtain an FDA finding of ‘substantial equivalence’ by 9 submitting a premarket notification to the agency in accordance with section
10 510(k) of the [Food Drug and Cosmetic Act]. 21 U.S.C. § 360(k). A device 11 found to be ‘substantially equivalent’ to a predicate device is said to be 12 ‘cleared’ by FDA (as opposed to ‘approved’ by the agency under a PMA. A 13 pre-market notification submitted under 510(k) is thus entirely different from a 14 PMA which must include data sufficient to demonstrate that the IVC Filters is 15 safe and effective.

17 46. In Medtronic, Inc. v. Lohr, the U.S. Supreme Court similarly described the 18 510(k) process, observing:

19 If the FDA concludes on the basis of the [manufacturer’s] § 510(k) notification 20 that the device is “substantially equivalent” to a pre-existing device, it can be 21 marketed without further regulatory analysis. . . . The § 510(k) notification
22 process is by no means comparable to the PMA process; in contrast to the 1,200 hours necessary to complete a PMA review, the § 510(k) review is completed in average of 20 hours. . . . As one commentator noted: “The attraction of substantial equivalence to manufacturers is clear. Section 510(k) notification requires little information, rarely elicits a negative response from the FDA, and gets processed quickly.”

1 518 U.S. 470, 478-79 (1996) (quoting Adler, The 1976 Medical Device Amendments:
2 A Step in the Right Direction Needs Another Step in the Right Direction, 43 Food
3 Drug Cosm. L.J. 511, 516 (1988)).

4 47. Pursuant to Wyeth v. Levine, 555 U.S. 555 (2009), once a product is cleared “the 5 manufacturer remains under an obligation to investigate and report any adverse events
6 associated with the drug . . . and must periodically submit any new information that may affect 7 the FDA’s previous conclusions about the safety, effectiveness, or labeling” This 8 obligation extends to post-market monitoring of adverse events/complaints.

9 48. In July 2003, through this 510(k) process, Bard obtained clearance from the 10 FDA to market the Recovery[®] filter for optional retrieval.

11 49. Although Bard began aggressively marketing the Recovery[®] filter in 2003, full 12 market release did not occur until January 2004.

13 50. Bard was aware that the Recovery[®] filter was also used extensively off-label, 14 including for purely prophylactic reasons for trauma patients or patients with upcoming 15 surgeries such as bariatric (weight loss) and orthopedic procedures.

16 51. The Recovery[®] filter consists of two (2) levels of six (6) radially distributed
17 NITINOL (a nickel titanium alloy whose full name is Nickel Titanium Naval Ordinance 18 Laboratory) struts that are designed to anchor the filter into the inferior vena cava and to catch 19 any embolizing clots.

20 52. This filter has six short struts, which are commonly referred to as the “arms,” 21 and six long struts, which are commonly referred to as the “legs.”

1 53. Each strut is held together by a single connection to a cap located at the top of 2 the filter. According to the patent application filed for this device, the short struts are 3 primarily for “centering” or “positioning” within the vena cava, and the long struts with 4 attached hooks are designed primarily to prevent the device from migrating in response to 5 “normal respiratory movement” or “pulmonary embolism.”

6 54. The alloy NITINOL possesses “shape memory,” meaning NITINOL will change 7 shape according to changes in temperature, then retake its prior shape after returning to its 8 initial temperature.

9 55. When placed in saline, the Recovery® filter’s NITINOL struts become soft and 10 can be straightened to allow delivery through a small-diameter catheter. The NITINOL struts 11 then resume their original shape when warmed to body temperature in the vena cava.

12 56. The Recovery® filter is inserted via catheter guided by a physician (normally an 13 interventional radiologist) through a blood vessel into the inferior vena cava. The Recovery®
14 Filter is designed to be retrieved in a similar fashion.

15 57. According to the Instructions for Use of this medical device, only the Recovery®
16 Cone System could be used to retrieve the Recovery® filter (as well as subsequent generations 17 of Bard’s IVC filters).

18 58. The Recovery® Cone System is an independent medical device requiring 19 approval by the FDA under the pre-market approval process or, if a substantially equivalent
20 medical device was already on the market, clearance by the FDA pursuant to the 510(k)
21 application process.

1 59. Although Bard marketed and sold the Recovery[®] Cone System separately, it
2 never sought or obtained approval or clearance from the FDA for this device.

3 60. Bard's sale of the Recovery[®] Cone System was, therefore, illegal.

4 61. Bard illegally sold the Recovery[®] Cone System in order to promote the 5 Recovery[®] filter as having a retrieval option.

6 B. Post-Market Performance Revealed The IVC Filters Failed to Perform as 7 Expected

8 62. Once placed on the market, Bard immediately became aware of numerous 9 confirmed events where its Recovery[®] filter fractured, migrated, or perforated the vena cava,
10 caused thrombus and clotting, and caused serious injury, including death.

11 63. Premarket and post-market clinical trials revealed that the Recovery[®] failed and 12 caused serious risk of harm. In addition, peer-reviewed literature reflected that such filters 13 actually increased the risk of patients developing thromboembolic events.

14 64. Approximately a month after the full-scale launch of the Recovery[®] filter, on 15 February 9, 2004, Bard received notice of the first death associated with this filter. The next 16 day, a MAUDE analysis was performed which revealed that there had been at least two other 17 migration-related adverse events reported to Bard in 2003.

18 65. MAUDE is a database maintained by the FDA to house medical device reports 19 submitted by mandatory reporters (such as manufacturers and device user facilities) and 20 voluntary reporters (such as health care providers and patients).

21 66. Instead of pulling the Recovery[®] filter off the market, Bard focused on public
22 relations and protecting its brand and image. By February 12, 2004, Bard had formed a crisis

1 communication team and drafted at least four communiques to pass onto its sales force
2 containing false information designed to be relayed to concerned doctors.

3 67. By April of 2004, at least three deaths had been reported to Bard. Yet again,
4 instead of recalling its deadly device, Bard concealed this information from doctors and 5 patients and hired the public relations firm Hill & Knowlton to address anticipated publicity
6 that could affect stock prices and sales.

7 68. Bard made the decision to continue to market and sell the Recovery[®] filter until 8 its next generation product, the G2[®] IVC filter, was cleared by the FDA.

9 69. The G2[®] filter, however, was not cleared for market until August 29, 2005.

10 70. Meanwhile, the death count escalated.

11 71. On July 12, 2004, C.R. Bard CEO Timothy Ring received an executive summary
12 reporting that there were at least 12 filter migrations resulting in four deaths and at least 17
13 reports of filter fracture, six cases of which involved strut embolization to the heart.

14 72. This same report advised that fracture rates for the Recovery[®] filter exceed 15 reported rates of other filters.

16 73. These events revealed, or should have revealed, to Bard that the Recovery[®] filter 17 is prone to an unreasonably high risk of failure and patient injury following placement in the 18 human body.

19 74. Bard also learned that the Recovery[®] filter failed to meet migration resistance 20 testing specifications.

21 75. In addition, multiple early studies reported that the Recovery[®] filter has a 22 fracture and migration rate ranging from 21% to 31.7%, rates that are substantially higher

1 compared to other IVC filters. More recently, fractures were reported to be as high as 40%
2 after five and a half years from the date of implant.

3 76. Bard had clear evidence that the Recovery[®] filter was not substantially
4 equivalent to the predecessor SNF, making the Recovery[®] filter adulterated and misbranded,
5 requiring its immediate withdrawal from the market.

6 77. At least one Bard executive concluded the Recovery[®] filter posed an 7 unreasonable risk of harm and required corrective action, including a recall.

8 78. Likewise, Bard's G2[®] filter was predicted to have fracture rates as high as 37.5%
9 after five years from date of implant.

10 79. Subsequent Bard IVC Filter models, including the electropolished version of the 11 G2[®] filter known as the Eclipse, only marginally increased fracture resistance.

12 80. When IVC filter fractures occur, shards of the filter or even the entire filter can 13 travel to the heart, where they can cause cardiac tamponade, perforation of the atrial wall, 14 myocardial infarction, and/or death.

15 81. Bard IVC Filters similarly pose a high risk of tilting and perforating the vena
16 cava walls. When such tilting occurs, the filters can also perforate the adjacent aorta, 17 duodenum, small bowel, spine, or ureter, which may lead to and, upon information and belief, 18 already have led to retroperitoneal hematomas, small-bowel obstructions, extended periods of 19 severe pain, and/or death.

20 82. The Adverse Event Reports ("AERs") associated with all IVC filters
21 demonstrate that Bard IVC Filters are far more prone to failure than are other similar IVC
22

1 filters. A review of the FDA MAUDE database from the years 2004 through 2008 shows that
2 Bard IVC Filters are responsible for the following percentages of all IVC filter AERs:

- 3 a. 50% of all adverse events;
- 4 b. 64% of all occurrences of migration of the IVC Filters;
- 5 c. 69% of all occurrences of vena cava wall perforation; and
- 6 d. 70% of all occurrences of filter fracture.

7 83. These failures were often associated with severe patient injuries such as:

- 8 a. Death;
- 9 b. Hemorrhage;
- 10 c. Cardiac/pericardial tamponade (pressure caused by a collection of blood 11 in the area around the heart);
- 12 d. Cardiac arrhythmia and other symptoms similar to myocardial infarction;
- 13 e. Severe and persistent pain; and
- 14 f. Perforations of tissue, vessels and organs.

15 84. These failures and resulting injuries are attributable, in part, to the fact that the 16 Bard IVC Filter design was unable to withstand the normal anatomical and physiological 17 loading cycles exerted in vivo.

18 85. In addition to design defects, Bard IVC Filters suffer from manufacturing
19 defects. These manufacturing defects include, but are not limited to, the existence of “draw 20 markings” and circumferential grinding markings on the exterior of the surface of the filters.

21 86. The presence of these draw markings and/or circumferential grinding markings
22 further compromises the structural integrity of the Bard IVC Filters while in the body. In

1 particular, the Recovery[®] filter is prone to fail at or near the location of draw
2 markings/circumferential grinding markings on the struts of the filters. These exterior
3 manufacturing defects render Bard IVC Filters too weak to withstand normal placement within 4 the human body.

5 87. Bard was aware that Bard IVC Filters had substantially higher reported failure
6 rates than all other IVC filters for fracture, perforation, migration, and death. For example:

- 7 a. On April 23, 2004, Bard's Corporate VP of Quality Assurance sent an 8 email noting that the Recovery[®] filter's reported failure rates "did not 9 look good compared to permanent filters" and promised to remove the 10 filter from the market if its reported death rate became "significantly 11 greater than the rest of the pack."
- 12 b. On July 9, 2004, a BPV safety analysis of reported failure rates 13 determined that the Recovery[®] filter had a reported failure rate that was 14 28 times higher than all other IVC filters.
- 15 c. On December 17, 2004, analysis determined that the "[r]eports of death,
16 filter migration (movement), IVC perforation, and filter fracture
17 associated with the Recovery[®] filter were seen in the MAUDE database
18 at reporting rates that were 4.6, 4.4, 4.1, and 5.3 times higher,
19 respectively, than reporting rates for all other filters. . . . These 20 deficiencies were all statistically significant . . . [and were] significantly 21 higher than those for other removable filters."
22

- 1 d. By December 2004, according to BPV's own findings pursuant to its
2 safety procedure, the Recovery[®] filter had so many reported failures that 3 it was deemed not reasonably safe for human use and required
4 "correction."
- 5 e. A BPV safety analysis from June 28, 2011, revealed that the Recovery[®]
6 filter had a reported fracture rate 55 times higher than the SNF.
- 7 f. Whereas the Recovery[®] filter was reported to have caused over a dozen
8 deaths by early 2005, the SNF has never — to Plaintiffs' knowledge —
9 been reported as associated with a patient death.

10 C. Defendants Knew Why the Recovery[®] Filter Was Failing and Were Aware
11 of Available Design Changes that Could Substantially Reduce Failures

12 88. Bard knew why the design changes made to the Recovery[®] filter were causing 13 failures.

14 89. Bard was aware that the diameter of the leg hooks was a substantial factor in a 15 filter's ability to resist migration and fatigue.

16 90. By reducing the diameter of the hooks on the Recovery[®] filter, Bard had reduced 17 the device's ability to remain stable and not fracture.

18 91. Bard also reduced the leg span of the Recovery[®] filter from that of the SNF filter
19 by 25%. As a result, Bard knew its retrievable IVC filters lacked a sufficient margin of safety 20 to accommodate expansion of the vena cava (distension) after placement.

1 92. Bard was also aware that its failure to electropolish the wire material prior to
2 distribution meant that Bard IVC Filters had surface damage that reduced their fatigue
3 resistance.

4 93. Bard was also aware that the Recovery[®] filter had a high propensity to tilt and 5 perforate the vena cava, which substantially increased the risk of fracture.

6 94. Bard was also aware that fatigue resistance could be increased by decreasing the 7 sharpness of the angle of the wire struts where they exited the cap at the top of the IVC filters, 8 and by chamfering (rounding or reducing the sharpness) of the cap edge against which the 9 struts rubbed.

10 95. A few examples of Bard's awareness of the unreasonably dangerous problems
11 with Bard IVC Filters include:

- 12 a. On June 18, 2003, BPV engineer Robert Carr sent an email noting that 13 chamfering the edge of the cap would reduce the likelihood of fracture.
- 14 b. On March 16, 2004, a BPV engineer sent an email admitting that the 15 surface damage seen on the Recovery[®] filter from the manufacturing 16 process decreases fatigue resistance and that electropolishing increases 17 fatigue resistance.
- 18 c. In an April 2004 meeting, BPV was warned by its physician consultants, 19 Drs. Venbrux and Kaufman, that the migration resistance of the 20 Recovery[®] filter needed to be raised from 50 mmHg to 140 mmHg.
21 They further warned BPV that Bard's Recovery[®] filter was a "wimpy" 22 filter and its radial force was inadequate to assure stability.

- 1 d. On May 5, 2004, a BPV engineer sent an email stating that adding a 2 “chamfer” to the filter would “address the arm fracture issue.”
- 3 e. On May 26, 2004, a BPV engineer sent an email stating that a proposed
4 modified Recovery® filter design with a large chamfer lasted 50 bending
5 cycles before breaking, whereas another proposed modified Recovery®
6 filter with a small chamfer broke after ten bending cycles.

7 96. Prior to Plaintiffs being implanted with a Bard IVC Filter, Bard was aware of 8 other design changes that could make the Recovery® filter substantially safer. In a report
9 dated February 16, 2005, BPV describes the design changes to the Recovery® filter, which 10 became known as the G2® Filter. The report states that the Recovery® filter has been modified 11 to “to increase migration and fracture resistance, and to minimize the likelihood of leg 12 twisting, appendage snagging, filter tilting, and caval perforation.” The document goes on to 13 describe the design modifications, which include:

- 14 a. Increased ground wire diameter of the hook from .0085” to .0105” in 15 order to improve the fracture resistance of the hook and to improve the 16 migration resistance of the filter.
- 17 b. The leg span has been increased from 32mm to 40mm in order to 18 improve the ability of the filter to expand with a distending vena cava 19 reducing risk of migration.
- 20 c. The total filter arm length has increased from 20mm to 25mm, enlarging 21 the arm span from 30mm to 33mm to aid in filter centering.

- d. An additional inward bend has been applied to the end of the filter arm in order to improve arm interaction with the vessel wall and to address caval perforations and appendage snagging.
- e. The arc of filter arm, as it attaches to the sleeve, has been modified to have a smooth radial transition instead of sharp angle. This change was made in order to reduce the stress concentration generated by the sharp angle and thus improve fracture resistance in the area of the filter.
- f. The report concludes that the design modifications have substantially reduced the risk of fracture.

97. Subsequent design changes only marginally improved product safety, but did not fully or adequately address the Bard IVC Filters' deadly defects.

98. Electropolishing was added to the Bard IVC Filters in 2010 to reduce the risk of fracture. Electropolishing implanted Nitinol IVC filters was the industry standard, and increased fatigue resistance by at least 25%, according to Bard's internal testing.

99. Additional anchors were added to the anchoring system on the filter in 2011, in what became known as the Meridian filter. The purpose of this improvement was to decrease the risk of tilting, which increases the risk of fracture and perforation, and reduce caudal migration.

100. Bard added penetration limiters with the introduction of Denali Filter in May 2013.

101. Penetration limiters are designed to reduce perforation and penetration of the vena cava.

D. Bard Misrepresented and Concealed the IVC Filters' Risks and Benefits

102. Despite knowing that the Recovery® filter was substantially more likely to fracture, migrate, tilt, and cause death than any other filter, Bard marketed its IVC filters as being safer and more effective than all other filters throughout the lifecycle of the product.

103. Bard further provided mandatory scripts to its Bard IVC filter sales force, which required the sales force to falsely tell physicians that the Recovery® filter was safe because it had the same reported failure rates as all other filters.

104. Even Bard's updated labeling in December 2004 downplayed and concealed the Recovery® filter's dangerous effects because it suggested fractures almost always cause no harm and that all filters had the same risk of failure.

105. Bard's updated labeling also downplayed the risk of harm by stating that serious injuries had only been "reported" when Bard knew such injuries had in fact occurred.

E. Bard Chose to Keep Selling an Unsafe IVC Filter and Lied to Its Own Sales Force to Ensure Market Share and Stock Prices

106. Instead of warning the public or withdrawing the IVC Filters from the market to fix the problems with its IVC filters, Defendants retained a public relations firm, opened a task force to prevent information from getting out to the public, and devised a plan to address the public if it did.

107. In 2004, Bard created a Crisis Communication Team that included members of Bard's upper level management, Bard's legal department, and independent consultants.

108. The Crisis Communication Team created a Crisis Communication Plan, which summarized Bard's motivation for withholding risk information from the public as follows:

1 The proliferation of unfavorable press in top-tier media outlets can cause an
2 onslaught of negative activity: a company's employee morale may suffer, stock 3 prices may plummet, analysts may downgrade the affected company's rating, reputations may be ruined temporarily or even permanently. Extensive preparation is critical to help prevent the spread of damaging coverage.

4 109. In an April 2004 email, BPV consultant Dr. John Lehmann, a member of the 5 Crisis Communication Team, advised Bard to conceal from the public Bard's information
6 about the material risk of its IVC filters. Bard adopted his advice. His email states, among 7 other things:

8 Comparison with other filters is problematic in many ways, and we should 9 avoid/downplay this as much as possible. When pressed, we simply paraphrase
10 what was said in the Health Hazard. That "Estimates based on available data 11 suggest that there is no significant difference in the rates of these complications 12 between any of the IVC Filters currently marketed in the U.S., including the 13 Recovery IVC Filters.

14 ***

15 I wouldn't raise this subject if at possible. It would be a most unusual reporter 16 that will get this far. The testing data I saw in Arizona showed that although 17 RF was certainly within the boundaries of IVC Filters tested, in larger veins it 18 was near the bottom. I would avoid as much as possible getting into this 19 subject, because I'm not sure others would agree with the conclusion that 20 "Recovery Vena Cava Filter was just as or more resistant to migration than all 21 retrievable and non-retrievable competitors.

22 110. Bard also made false representations and/omissions to the BPV sales force to keep them selling the IVC filters. Bard reassured the sales force that despite the failures with the Recovery[®] filter, the Bard IVC Filters were safe because they had the same failure rates as all other IVC filters.

111. By December 2004, BPV's own safety procedure deemed the Recovery[®] filter not reasonably safe for human use. Yet Bard continued to market and sell the Recovery[®] filter

1 into September 2005 and continued to allow its defective product to sit on shelves available to 2 be implanted for an unknown period of time after September 2005.

3 112. Even after the G2[®] filter was launched in September 2005, Bard still failed to 4 warn consumers of the increased risk posed by the Recovery[®] filter. Instead, Bard again chose
5 to conceal information about the serious risks of substantial harm from the use of its defective 6 product.

7 THE G2[®], RECOVERY[®] G2 AND G2[®] EXPRESS FILTERS

8 113. On or about March 2, 2005, Bard submitted a Section 510(k) premarket
9 notification of intent to market the G2[®] filter for the prevention of recurrent pulmonary
10 embolism via placement in the inferior vena cava. In doing so, Bard cited the Recovery[®] filter
11 as the substantially equivalent predicate IVC filter, which was an inappropriate and illegal
12 predicate device since it was being marketed while adulterated and misbranded for failing,
13 among other things, to be as safe and effective as its predicate device, SNF. Bard stated that 14 the only differences between the Recovery[®] filter and the G2[®] filter were primarily 15 dimensional, and no material changes or additional components were added. It was 16 considered by Bard the next generation of the Recovery[®] filter

17 114. On March 30, 2005, however, the FDA rejected this application unless Bard and 18 BPV included “black box” warnings that read:

19 Warning: The safety and effectiveness of the Recovery[®] Filter System in 20 morbidly obese patients has not been established. There have been fatal device-related adverse events reported in this population.

21 [and]

22 [C]entral venous lines may cause the filters to move or fracture.

1 115. On April 19, 2005, prior to formally responding to the FDA’s request to add a
2 black box warning, BPV CEO Timothy Ring and C.R. Bard CEO John Weiland received an 3 executive summary reporting that there were at least 34 migrations and 51 fractures associated 4 with Bard IVC Filters.

5 116. This same report advised Bard executives that there were then nine deaths, six of 6 which related to morbidly obese patients. Further, 18 of the 51 fractures resulted in fragments
7 migrating to the heart.

8 117. On April 20, 2005, without alerting the FDA to the alarming information Bard
9 executives had the day before, Bard submitted a letter in response to the FDA’s request to add 10 this black box warning stating that, “There is currently a statement in the IFU linking all of our 11 complications to death.”

12 118. On August 29, 2005, the FDA cleared the G2[®] filter for the same intended uses
13 as the Recovery[®] filter, except that it was not cleared for retrievable use.² Contrary to the 14 FDA’s suggestion, no black box warning was added to warn the bariatric patient population of 15 fatalities associated with the use of the filter.³

16 119. In September of 2005, Bard quietly and belatedly replaced the Recovery[®] filter
17 on hospital shelves with the G2[®] filter. Bard either told doctors or led them to believe that the 18 G2[®] was a new and improved version of the Recovery[®] filter with the same option to retrieve 19 the filter after implant.

21 ² The FDA did not clear the G2[®] filter to be used as a retrievable filter until January 15, 2008.

22 ³ A warning was eventually added to the IFU in October of 2009.

1 120. At the same time Bard was selling the G2[®] (then a permanent use filter without 2 any retrievability option), Bard was also selling the SNF, which had the same indication for 3 use with nearly zero adverse events.

4 121. Bard marketed the G2[®] filter as having “enhanced fracture resistance,” 5 “improved centering,” and “increased migration resistance” without any data to back up these 6 representations. Even if such data existed, Bard witnesses have testified that Bard would not 7 share any such information with doctors if requested.

8 122. Moreover, as with its predecessor Recovery[®] filter, Bard failed to conduct
9 adequate clinical and bench testing to ensure that the G2[®] filter would perform safely and 10 effectively once implanted in the human body.

11 123. The G2[®] filter’s design causes it to be of insufficient integrity and strength to 12 withstand normal stresses within the human body so as to resist fracturing, migrating, and/or 13 tilting, and/or perforating the inferior vena cava.

14 124. In addition to the same design defects as its predecessor device, the G2[®] filter
15 suffers from the same manufacturing defects. These manufacturing defects include, but are 16 not limited to, the existence of “draw markings” and circumferential grinding markings on the 17 exterior of the surface of Bard IVC Filters. The presence of these draw markings and/or 18 circumferential grinding markings further compromises the structural integrity of the G2[®]
19 filter while in vivo.

20 125. In particular, the G2[®] filter is prone to fail at or near the location of draw
21 markings/circumferential grinding markings on the struts of the IVC Filters.

1 126. Put simply, the G2[®] filter is not of sufficient strength to withstand normal
2 placement within the human body. The presence of the aforementioned exterior
3 manufacturing defects makes Bard IVC Filters more susceptible to fatigue, failure, and 4 migration.

5 127. Similarly, although Bard rounded the chamfer at the edge of the cap of the G2[®]
6 filter, it continued to fracture at that same location.

7 128. Thus, the G2[®] filter shares similar defects and health risks as the Recovery[®]
8 filter.

9 129. Almost immediately upon the release of the G2[®] filter, Bard received notice of 10 the same series of adverse events of migration, fracture, tilt, and perforation causing the same
11 type of harm as the Recovery[®] filter. This time, however, a new and different adverse event
12 emerged: the G2[®] filter would caudally (moving against blood flow) migrate in the direction 13 toward the groin.

14 130. The G2[®] filter failures were again associated with reports of severe patient 15 injuries such as:

- 16 a. Death;
- 17 b. Hemorrhage;
- 18 c. Cardiac/pericardial tamponade (pressure caused by a collection of blood 19 in the area around the heart);
- 20 d. Cardiac arrhythmia and other symptoms similar to myocardial infarction;
- 21 e. Severe and persistent pain; and
- 22 f. Perforations of tissue, vessels and organs.

1 131. Bard represents the fracture rate of the G2[®] filter to be 1.2%. Based upon a
2 review of the data available in the public domain (including the FDA MAUDE database 3 statistics and the published medical literature), this representation does not accurately reflect 4 the true frequency of fractures for the G2[®] filter.

5 132. As with the Recovery[®] filter, Bard was aware of clinical data showing that the 6 G2[®] filter was not the substantial equivalent of its predecessor SNF device, requiring 7 immediate recall of the adulterated and misbranded product.

8 133. A review of the MAUDE database from the years 2004 through 2008
9 demonstrates that the Bard IVC Filters (including the G2[®] Filter) are responsible for the 10 majority of all reported adverse events related to IVC filters.

11 134. On December 27, 2005, Bard's Medical Affairs Director sent an email
12 questioning why Bard was even selling the modified version of the Recovery[®] filter, when 13 Bard's SNF had virtually no complaints associated with it.

14 135. This further confirms the misbranded and adulterated nature of the device, 15 requiring corrective action, including recall.

16 136. On January 15, 2008, the FDA allowed a retrievable option for the G2[®] filter, the 17 G2 Express[®] filter. The G2 Express[®] filter (also known as the "G2[®]X") is identical in design
18 to the G2[®] filter except that it has a hook at the top of the filters that allows it to be retrieved 19 by snares, as well as Bard's Recovery Cone.

20 137. The G2[®]X filter contained no design modifications or improvements to alleviate 21 the instability, structural integrity, and perforation problems that Bard knew to exist with the 22 G2[®]X Filter via the 510(k) process.

THE ECLIPSE® FILTER

138. In a failed effort to resolve the complications associated with its previous filters, Bard designed the Eclipse® Vena Cava Filter as the next generation in its retrievable IVC filter family.

139. The Eclipse® filter was cleared by the FDA on January 14, 2010. The only design changes from the G2® family of filters to the Eclipse® filter was that the Eclipse® filter was electropolished.

140. According to Bard's internal testing, electropolishing supposedly increased fracture resistance by 25%. However, longitudinal studies published in peer-reviewed medical literature found that among 363 patients implanted with the Recovery® filter and 658 patients implanted with the G2® filter, the devices experienced fracture rates of 40% and 37.5%, respectively, after five and a half years. Thus, approximately 28.125% to 30% of Eclipse® filters would still be projected to fracture within five and a half years.

141. Without meaningful design changes, the Eclipse® filter continued to share several of the same design defects and complications associated with the Recovery® filter and G2® family of filters.

142. Soon after Bard launched the Eclipse® filter, it began receiving complaints and reports of injuries associated with the Eclipse® filter similar to those received with its predecessor filters.

143. Bard, however, knew and/or soon learned that the Eclipse® filter was not the substantial equivalent of the SNF, making this device also misbranded and adulterated, and subject to recall.

THE MERIDIAN[®] FILTER

144. The Meridian[®] filter was cleared by the FDA in August of 2011.

145. Bard represented to the FDA that the Meridian was substantially similar to the Eclipse[®] filter and could therefore be cleared via the less onerous 510(k) process.

146. Bard, however, knew and/or soon learned that the Meridian[®] filter was not the substantial equivalent of the SNF, making this device also misbranded and adulterated, and subject to recall.

147. The Meridian[®] filter system was the next-generation of Bard's retrievable or optional filters. The Meridian[®] filter is made of the same nickel-titanium alloy, NITINOL, as the Bard Recovery[®], G2[®], and Eclipse[®] filters.

148. The design of the Meridian is based on the Eclipse[®] filter, which, in turn, is based entirely on the G2[®] filter, which, in turn is based on the Recovery[®] Filter. Like the Eclipse[®], the wires used in the Meridian[®] filter are electropolished prior to the forming of the filter. The only added feature to the Meridian[®] filter was a caudal anchoring system added in an attempt to reduce the prevalence of the filter caudal migrating toward the groin.

149. However, as seen with the Recovery[®], G2[®], and Eclipse[®] filters, soon after its introduction to the market reports surfaced that the Meridian[®] filters were fracturing, perforating, migrating, and/or tilting in the patients in which they were implanted.

150. The Meridian[®] filter was also plagued with the same manufacturing and design defects that were causing damage to the general public as Bard's predecessor retrievable filters.

THE DENALI[®] FILTER

151. The Denali[®] filter was cleared by the FDA on May 15, 2013. It is Bard's latest generation device in the IVC filter product line.

152. Bard represented to the FDA that the Denali[®] was substantially similar to the Eclipse[®] filter, again bypassing formal pre-market FDA approval and instead utilizing the 510(k) process.

153. The Denali[®] Filter is also made of NITINOL. Its design is based on the Eclipse[®] filter, which in turn, was based on Bard's predecessor filter line. Like the Eclipse[®], the NITINOL wires used in the Denali[®] filter are electropolished prior to the forming of the filter. The added features to the Denali[®] Filter were cranial and caudal anchoring systems (to reduce the prevalence of the filter migration) and penetration limiters.

154. However, as seen with the Recovery[®], G2[®], G2X[®] (G2 Express[®]), and Eclipse[®] Filters, soon after its introduction to the market, reports were made that the Denali[®] filters were fracturing, perforating, migrating, and/or tilting in the patients in which they were implanted.

155. The Denali[®] filter was likewise plagued with the same manufacturing and design defects that were causing damage to the general public in Bard's predecessor retrievable filter family.

156. At all times material hereto from the design phase, testing, and manufacture of the Recovery[®] filter through the Denali[®] filter, Bard lacked a thorough understanding dynamics of caval anatomy that impacted testing methods.

1 157. At this time, all Bard IVC Filters contain the same or substantially similar 2 defects resulting in the same or substantially similar mechanism of injury to Plaintiffs and 3 their decedents.

4 158. At this time, all Bard IVC Filters are misbranded and adulterated by virtue of 5 them failing to be the substantial equivalent of their predecessor devices, all of which were 6 required to be as safe and effective as the original predicate device, the Simon Nitinol Filter,
7 and none were/are, making them subject to corrective action, including recall, in the interest of 8 patient safety. The use of each of these subject devices was inappropriate and illegal since 9 each was being marketed while adulterated and misbranded for failing, among other things, to 10 be as safe and effective as the originating predicate device, SNF.

11 159. At all relevant times, safer and more efficacious designs existed for this product, 12 as well as reasonable treatment alternatives.

13 ESTOPPEL FROM PLEADING STATUTES OF LIMITATIONS OR REPOSE

14 160. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all prior allegations.

15 161. Plaintiffs are within the applicable statute of limitations for their claims because 16 Plaintiffs (and their healthcare professionals) did not discover, and could not reasonably 17 discover, the defects and unreasonably dangerous condition of their Bard IVC Filters.

18 162. Plaintiffs' ignorance of the defective and unreasonably dangerous nature of the 19 Bard IVC Filters, and the causal connection between these defects and Plaintiffs' injuries and 20 damages, is due in large part to Bard's acts and omissions in fraudulently concealing 21 information from the public and misrepresenting and/or downplaying the serious threat to 22 public safety its products present.

1 163. In addition, Bard is estopped from relying on any statutes of limitation or repose
2 by virtue of its unclean hands, acts of fraudulent concealment, affirmative misrepresentations
3 and omissions.

4 164. Such conduct includes intentional concealment from Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs'
5 prescribing health care professionals, and the general consuming public of material
6 information that Bard IVC Filters had not been demonstrated to be safe or effective, and 7 carried with them the risks and dangerous defects described above.

8 165. Bard had a duty to disclose the fact that Bard IVC Filters are not safe or 9 effective, not as safe as other filters on the market, defective, and unreasonably dangerous, and 10 that their implantation and use carried with it the serious risk of developing perforation, 11 migration, tilting, and/or fracture.

12 COUNT I: STRICT PRODUCTS LIABILITY – MANUFACTURING DEFECT

13 166. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all prior allegations.

14 167. Prior to, on, and after the date the Bard IVC Filters were implanted in Plaintiffs, 15 Bard designed, distributed, manufactured, sold, and marketed Bard IVC Filters for use in the 16 United States.

17 168. At all relevant times, Bard designed, distributed, manufactured, marketed, and 18 sold Bard IVC Filters that were unreasonably dangerous, unsafe, and defective in manufacture
19 when they left Bard's possession.

20 169. Upon information and belief, Bard IVC Filters contain a manufacturing defect, 21 in that they differed from the manufacturer's design or specifications, or from other typical 22 units of the same product line.

1 170. As a direct and proximate cause of Bard's design, manufacture, marketing, and 2 sale of Bard IVC Filters prior to, on, and after the date Plaintiffs used the Bard IVC Filters,
3 Plaintiffs suffered Injuries and Damages.

4 COUNT II: STRICT PRODUCTS LIABILITY – INFORMATION DEFECT

5 171. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all prior allegations.

6 172. At all relevant times, Bard engaged in the business of testing, developing,
7 designing, manufacturing, packaging, labeling, marketing and/or promoting, selling and/or 8 distributing Bard IVC Filters and through that conduct has knowingly and intentionally placed
9 Bard IVC Filters into the stream of commerce with full knowledge that they reach consumers
10 such as Plaintiffs who would become implanted with them.

11 173. Bard did in fact test, develop, design, manufacture, package, label, market and/or 12 promote, sell and/or distribute Bard IVC Filters to Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs' prescribing health care
13 professionals, and the consuming public. Additionally, Bard expected that the Bard IVC
14 Filters they were selling, distributing, supplying, manufacturing, and/or promoting to reach,
15 and did in fact reach, prescribing health care professionals and consumers, including Plaintiffs 16 and Plaintiffs' prescribing health care professionals, without any substantial change in the 17 condition of the product from when it was initially distributed by Bard.

18 174. The Bard IVC Filters had potential risks and side effects that were known or 19 knowable to Bard by the use of scientific inquiry and information available before, at, and 20 after the manufacture, distribution, and sale of the Bard IVC Filters.

21 175. Bard knew or should have known of the defective condition, characteristics, and 22 risks associated with Bard IVC Filters. These defective conditions included, but were not

1 limited to: (1) Bard IVC Filters posed a significant and higher risk of failure than other similar
2 IVC filters (fracture, migration, tilting, and perforation of the vena cava wall); (2) Bard IVC
3 Filter failures result in serious injuries and death; and (3) certain conditions or post-implant 4 procedures, such as morbid obesity or open abdominal procedures, could affect the safety and 5 integrity of Bard IVC Filters.

6 176. Bard IVC Filters were in a defective and unsafe condition that was unreasonably
7 and substantially dangerous to any user or consumer implanted with Bard IVC Filters, such as 8 Plaintiffs, when used in an intended or reasonably foreseeable way.

9 177. The warnings and directions Bard provided with Bard IVC Filters failed to 10 adequately warn of the potential risks and side effects of Bard IVC Filters.

11 178. These risks were known or were reasonably scientifically knowable to Bard, but 12 not known or recognizable to ordinary consumers, such as Plaintiffs, or to Plaintiffs' treating 13 doctors.

14 179. Bard IVC Filters were expected to and did reach Plaintiff without substantial 15 change in their condition, labeling, or warnings as manufactured, distributed, and sold by 16 Bard.

17 180. Additionally, Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' physicians used Bard IVC Filters in the 18 manner in which they were intended to be used, making such use reasonably foreseeable to 19 Bard.

20 181. As a direct and proximate result of Bard's information defects, lack of sufficient
21 instructions or warnings prior to, on, and after the date Plaintiffs used Bard IVC Filters,
22 Plaintiffs suffered Injuries and Damages.

COUNT III: STRICT PRODUCTS LIABILITY – DESIGN DEFECT

182. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all prior allegations.

183. At all relevant times, Bard designed, tested, distributed, manufactured, advertised, sold, marketed and otherwise placed into the stream of commerce Bard IVC Filters for use by consumers, such as Plaintiffs, in the United States.

184. Bard IVC Filters were expected to, and did, reach Bard's intended consumers, handlers, and persons coming into contact with the product without substantial change in the condition in which they was researched, tested, developed, designed, licensed, manufactured, packaged, labeled, distributed, sold, and marketed by Bard.

185. At all times relevant, Bard IVC Filters were manufactured, designed and labeled in an unsafe, defective, and inherently dangerous condition which was dangerous for use by the public in general and Plaintiffs in particular.

186. Bard IVC Filters, as researched, tested, developed, designed, licensed, manufactured, packaged, labeled, distributed, sold, and marketed by Bard were defective in design and formulation and unreasonably dangerous in that when they left the hands of Bard's manufacturers and/or suppliers, the foreseeable risks exceeded the alleged benefits associated with the use of Bard IVC Filters, and the devices were more dangerous than the ordinary customer would expect.

187. Physicians implanted Bard IVC Filters as instructed via the Instructions for Use and in a foreseeable manner as normally intended, recommend, promoted, and marketed by Bard.

1 188. Plaintiffs received and utilized Defendants' IVC Filters in a foreseeable manner
2 as normally intended, recommended, promoted, and marketed by Bard.

3 189. At the time Bard placed its defective and unreasonably dangerous Bard IVC
4 Filters into the stream of commerce commercially, technologically, and scientifically feasible
5 alternative designs were attainable and available.

6 190. These alternative designs would have prevented the harm resulting in Plaintiffs'
7 Injuries and Damages without substantially impairing the reasonably anticipated or intended
8 function of Bard IVC Filters.

9 191. As a direct and proximate result of the defective and unreasonably dangerous
10 condition of Bard IVC Filters, Plaintiffs suffered Injuries and Damages.

11 COUNT IV: NEGLIGENCE – DESIGN

12 192. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all prior allegations.

13 193. At the time of the design, distribution, manufacture, advertising, sale, and 14 marketing of Bard IVC Filters, and their implantation in Plaintiffs, Bard was aware that Bard
15 IVC Filters were designed and manufactured in a manner presenting:

- 16 a. An unreasonable risk of fracture of portions of the filters;
17 b. An unreasonable risk of migration of the filters and/or portions of the 18 filters;
19 c. An unreasonable risk of filters tilting and/or perforating the vena cava 20 wall; and
21 d. Insufficient strength or structural integrity to withstand normal
22 placement within the human body.

1 194. At the time of the design, distribution, manufacture, advertising, sale, and
2 marketing of Bard IVC Filters, and their implantation in Plaintiffs, Bard also was aware that
3 Bard IVC Filters:

- 4 a. Would be used without inspection for defects;
- 5 b. Would be used by patients with special medical conditions such as those 6 of the Plaintiffs;
- 7 c. Had previously caused serious bodily injury to its users with special 8 medical conditions such as those of the Plaintiffs;
- 9 d. Had no established efficacy;
- 10 e. Were less efficient than the predicate SNF;
- 11 f. Would be implanted in patients where the risk outweighed any benefit or 12 utility of the filters;
- 13 g. Contained instructions for use and warnings that were inadequate; and
- 14 h. Required retrieval (as to the Recovery® and G2® filters) by a device
15 that was not approved or cleared by the FDA.

16 195. Bard had a duty to exercise due care and avoid unreasonable risk of harm to 17 others in the design of Bard IVC Filters.

18 196. Bard breached these duties by, among other things:

- 19 a. Designing and distributing a product in which it knew or should have 20 known that the likelihood and severity of potential harm from the 21 product exceeded the burden of taking safety measures to reduce or 22 avoid harm;

- b. Designing and distributing a product which it knew or should have known that the likelihood and severity of potential harm from the product exceeded the likelihood of potential harm from other IVC filters available for the same purpose;
- c. Failing to perform reasonable pre- and post-market testing of Bard IVC Filters to determine whether or not the products were safe for their intended use;
- d. Failing to use reasonable and prudent care in the design, research, manufacture, and development of Bard IVC Filters so as to avoid the risk of serious harm associated with the use of Bard IVC Filters;
- e. Advertising, marketing, promoting, and selling Bard IVC Filters for uses other than as approved and indicated in the products' labels;
- f. Failing to establish an adequate quality assurance program used in the manufacturing of Bard IVC Filters; and
- g. Failing to perform adequate evaluation and testing of Bard IVC Filters when such evaluation and testing would have revealed the propensity of Bard IVC Filters to cause injuries similar to those that Plaintiffs suffered.

197. As a direct and proximate result of the above-described negligence in design of Bard IVC Filters, Plaintiffs suffered Injuries and Damages.

COUNT V: NEGLIGENCE – MANUFACTURE

198. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all prior allegations.

1 199. At all relevant times, Bard had a duty to exercise due care in the manufacturing
2 of Bard IVC Filters.

3 200. Bard breached this duty by, among other things:

- 4 a. Failing to adopt manufacturing processes that would reduce the 5 foreseeable risk of product failure;
- 6 b. Failing to use reasonable care in manufacturing the product and by 7 producing a product that differed from their design or specifications or 8 from other typical units from the same production line;
- 9 c. Failing to use reasonable and prudent care in the design, research,
10 manufacture, and development of Bard IVC Filters and their 11 manufacturing process so as to avoid the risk of serious harm associated 12 with the use of Bard IVC Filters; and
- 13 d. Failing to establish an adequate quality assurance program used in the 14 manufacturing of the IVC Filters.

15 201. As a direct and proximate result of the above-described negligence in 16 manufacture of Bard IVC Filters, Plaintiffs suffered Injuries and Damages.

17 COUNT VI: NEGLIGENCE – FAILURE TO RECALL/RETROFIT

18 202. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all prior allegations.

19 203. At this time, all Bard IVC Filters are misbranded and adulterated by virtue of 20 them failing to be the substantial equivalent of their predecessor device, making them subject 21 to corrective action, including recall, in the interest of patient safety.
22

1 204. Prior to, on, and after the date of Plaintiffs' implantation with Bard IVC Filters,
2 and at all relevant times, Bard knew or reasonably should have known that Bard IVC Filters
3 and their warnings were defective and dangerous or were likely to be dangerous when used in 4 a reasonably foreseeable manner.

5 205. Prior to, on, and after the date of Plaintiffs' implantation with Bard IVC Filters
6 and at all relevant times thereafter, Bard became aware that the defects of Bard IVC Filters
7 resulted in Bard IVC Filters causing injuries similar to those Plaintiffs suffered.

8 206. Reasonable manufacturers and distributors under the same or similar 9 circumstances would have recalled or retrofitted Bard IVC Filters, and would thereby have 10 avoided and prevented harm to many patients, including Plaintiffs.

11 207. In light of this information and Bard's knowledge described above, Bard had a 12 duty to recall and/or retrofit Bard IVC Filters.

13 208. Bard breached its duty to recall and/or retrofit Bard IVC Filters.

14 209. As a direct and proximate result of Bard's negligent failure to recall or retrofit,
15 Plaintiffs suffered Injuries and Damages.

16 COUNT VII: NEGLIGENCE – FAILURE TO WARN

17 210. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all prior allegations.

18 211. At all relevant times, Bard knew or should have known that Bard IVC Filters
19 were defective and dangerous or were likely to be dangerous when used in a reasonably 20 foreseeable manner.

21 212. Such danger included the propensity of Bard IVC Filters to cause injuries and 22 death similar to those suffered by Plaintiffs.

1 213. At all relevant times, Bard also knew or reasonably should have known that the 2 users of Bard IVC Filters, including Plaintiffs, would not realize or discover on their own the 3 dangers presented by Bard IVC Filters.

4 214. Reasonable manufacturers and reasonable distributors, under the same or similar
5 circumstances as those of Bard prior to, on, and after the date of Plaintiffs' use of Bard IVC
6 Filters, would have warned of the dangers presented by Bard IVC Filters, or instructed on the 7 safe use of Bard IVC Filters.

8 215. Prior to, on, and after the date of Plaintiffs' use of the IVC Filters, Bard had a 9 duty to adequately warn of the dangers presented by Bard IVC Filters and/or instruct on the 10 safe use of Bard IVC Filters.

11 216. Bard breached these duties by failing to provide adequate warnings to Plaintiffs 12 communicating the information and dangers described above and/or providing instruction for 13 safe use of Bard IVC Filters.

14 217. As a direct and proximate result of Bard's negligent failure to warn, Plaintiffs
15 suffered Injuries and Damages.

16 COUNT VIII: NEGLIGENT MISREPRESENTATION

17 218. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all prior allegations.

18 219. Prior to, on, and after the dates during which Plaintiff was implanted with the 19 IVC Filters, Bard negligently and carelessly represented to Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs' treating 20 physicians, and the general public that Bard IVC Filters were safe, fit, and effective for use.

21 220. These representations were untrue.

1 221. Bard owed a duty in all of its undertakings, including the dissemination of 2 information concerning its IVC filters, to exercise reasonable care to ensure that it did not in 3 those undertakings create unreasonable risks of personal injury to others.

4 222. Bard disseminated to health care professionals and consumers through published 5 labels, labeling, marketing materials, and otherwise information concerning the properties and 6 effects of Bard IVC Filters with the intention that health care professionals and consumers
7 would rely upon that information in their decisions concerning whether to prescribe and use
8 Bard IVC Filters.

9 223. Bard, as medical device designers, manufacturers, sellers, promoters and/or 10 distributors, knew or should reasonably have known that health care professionals and 11 consumers, in weighing the potential benefits and potential risks of prescribing or using Bard
12 IVC Filters, would rely upon information disseminated and marketed by Bard to them
13 regarding the Bard IVC Filters.

14 224. Bard failed to exercise reasonable care to ensure that the information they 15 disseminated to health care professionals and consumers concerning the properties and effects
16 of Bard IVC Filters was accurate, complete, and not misleading and, as a result, disseminated
17 information to health care professionals and consumers that was negligently and materially 18 inaccurate, misleading, false, and unreasonably dangerous to consumers such as Plaintiffs.

19 225. Bard, as designers, manufacturers, sellers, promoters, and/or distributors, also 20 knew or reasonably should have known that patients receiving Bard IVC Filters as 21 recommended by health care professionals in reliance upon information disseminated by Bard
22 as the manufacturer/distributor of Bard IVC Filters would be placed in peril of developing the

1 serious, life-threatening, and life-long injuries including, but not limited to, tilting, migration,
2 perforation, fracture, lack of efficacy, and increased risk of the development of blood clots, if 3 the information disseminated and relied upon was materially inaccurate, misleading, or 4 otherwise false.

5 226. Bard had a duty to promptly correct material misstatements it knew others were 6 relying upon in making healthcare decisions.

7 227. Bard failed in each of these duties by misrepresenting to Plaintiffs and the 8 medical community the safety and efficacy of Bard IVC Filters and failing to correct known 9 misstatements and misrepresentations.

10 228. As a direct and proximate result of Bard's negligent misrepresentations,
11 Plaintiffs suffered Injuries and Damages.

12 COUNT IX: NEGLIGENCE *PER SE

13 (Violations of 21 U.S.C. §§321, 331, 352 and 21 C.F.R. §§1.21, 801, 803, 807, 820)

14 229. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all prior allegations.

15 230. At all times herein mentioned, Bard was subject to a variety of federal, state, and 16 local laws, rules, regulations and ordinances, including the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic
17 Act ("FFDCA") and its applicable regulations, concerning the manufacture, design, testing, 18 production, processing, assembling, inspection, research, promotion, advertising, distribution, 19 marketing, promotion, labeling, packaging, preparation for use, consulting, sale, warning, and 20 post-sale warning and other communications of the risks and dangers of Bard IVC Filters.

21 231. By reason of its conduct as alleged herein, Bard violated provisions of statutes 22 and regulations, including but not limited to:

- a. FFDCa, 21 U.S.C. §§331 and 352, by misbranding Bard IVC Filters;
- b. FFDCa, 21 U.S.C. § 321, by making statements and/or representations via word, design, device, or any combination thereof failing to reveal material facts with respect to the consequences that may result from the use of Bard IVC Filters to which the labeling and advertising relates;
- c. 21 C.F.R. § 1.21, by misleading its consumers and patients by concealing material facts in light of representations made regarding safety and efficacy of its Bard IVC Filters;
- d. 21 C.F.R. § 801, by mislabeling Bard IVC Filters as to safety and effectiveness of its products and by failing to update its label to reflect post-marketing evidence that Bard IVC Filters were associated with an increased risk of injuries due to tilting, fracture, migration and perforation;
- e. 21 C.F.R. §§801.109 and 801.4 by learning that Bard IVC Filters were adulterated and misbranded and failing to correct and recall the devices.
- f. 21 C.F.R. § 803, by not maintaining accurate medical device reports regarding adverse events of tilting, fracture, migration and perforation and/or misreporting these adverse events maintained via the medical device reporting system;
- g. 21 C.F.R. § 807, by failing to notify the FDA and/or the consuming public when its Bard IVC Filters were no longer substantially equivalent

1 with regard to safety and efficacy with regard to post-marketing adverse 2 events and safety signals;

- 3 h. 21 C.F.R. § 820, by failing to maintain adequate quality systems
4 regulation including, but not limited to, instituting effective corrective 5 and preventative actions;
- 6 i. 21 CFR 201.128, by promoting each of their subject devices off-label
7 and for conditions, purposes and uses beyond their labeled and intended 8 uses; and
- 9 j. 210 CFR 801.4, by their knowledge of off-label uses of their devices for 10 unintended and unlabeled conditions, purposes and uses, and failing as 11 required to provide adequate labeling which accords with such unlabeled 12 and unintended uses.

13 232. These statutes, rules and regulations, along with those listed in Count XIV, are 14 designed to protect the health, safety, and well-being of consumers like Plaintiffs.

15 233. Bard's violation of these statutes, rules and regulations, as well as those detailed 16 in Count XIV, constitutes negligence per se.

17 234. As a direct and proximate result of Bard's negligence per se, Plaintiffs suffered 18 Injuries and Damages.

19 COUNT X: BREACH OF EXPRESS WARRANTY

20 235. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all prior allegations.

21 236. Plaintiffs, though their medical providers, purchased Bard IVC Filters from 22 Bard.

1 237. At all relevant times, Bard was a merchant of goods of the kind including
2 medical devices and vena cava filters (i.e, Bard IVC Filters).

3 238. At the time and place of sale, distribution, and supply of Bard IVC Filters to 4 Plaintiffs (and to other consumer and the medical community), Bard expressly represented and 5 warranted that Bard IVC Filters were safe; that they were well-tolerated, efficacious, fit for 6 their intended purpose, and of marketable quality; that they did not produce any unwarned-of 7 dangerous side effects; and that they was adequately tested.

8 239. At the time of Plaintiffs' purchase from Defendants, Bard IVC Filters were not 9 in a merchantable condition, and Bard breached its expressed warranties, in that Bard IVC
10 Filters:

- 11 a. Were designed in such a manner so as to be prone to an unreasonably 12 high incidence of fracture, perforation of vessels and organs, and/or 13 migration;
- 14 b. Were designed in such a manner so as to result in a unreasonably high 15 incidence of injury to the vessels and organs of its purchaser;
- 16 c. Were manufactured in such a manner that the exterior surface of the 17 filter was inadequately, improperly, and inappropriately constituted, 18 causing the device to weaken and fail;
- 19 d. Were unable to be removed at any time during a person's life;
- 20 e. Were not efficacious in the prevention of pulmonary emboli;
- 21 f. Carried a risk of use outweighed any benefit; and
- 22 g. Were not self-centering.

1 240. As a direct and proximate result of Bard's breach of express warranty, Plaintiffs
2 suffered Injuries and Damages.

3 COUNT XI: BREACH OF IMPLIED WARRANTY

4 241. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all prior allegations.

5 242. Bard impliedly warranted that Bard IVC Filters were of merchantable quality
6 and safe and fit for the use for which Bard intended them, and Plaintiffs in fact used them.

7 243. Bard breached its implied warranties by:

- 8 a. Failing to provide adequate instruction that a manufacturer exercising
9 reasonable care would have provided concerning the likelihood that Bard
10 IVC Filters would cause harm;
- 11 b. Manufacturing and/or selling Bard IVC Filters when those filters did not 12 conform to representations made by Bard when they left Bard's control;
- 13 c. Manufacturing and/or selling Bard IVC Filters that were more dangerous 14 than an ordinary consumer would expect when used in an intended or 15 reasonably foreseeable manner;
- 16 d. Manufacturing and/or selling Bard IVC Filters that carried foreseeable 17 risks associated with the Bard IVC Filter design or formulation which 18 exceeded the benefits associated with that design;
- 19 e. Manufacturing and/or selling Bard IVC Filters when they deviated in a 20 material way from the design specifications, formulas, or performance
21 standards or from otherwise identical units manufactured to the same 22 design specifications, formulas, or performance standards; and

- 1 f. Impliedly representing that its filters would be effective in the prevention
2 of pulmonary emboli.

3 244. As a direct and proximate result of Bard's breach of its implied warranty,
4 Plaintiffs have suffered Injuries and Damages.

5 COUNT XII: FRAUDULENT MISREPRESENTATION

6 245. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all prior allegations.

7 246. At all times relevant to this cause, and as detailed above, Bard intentionally
8 provided Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs' physicians, the medical community, and the public at large with 9 false or inaccurate information. Bard also omitted material information concerning Bard IVC
10 Filters, including, but not limited to, misrepresentations regarding the following topics:

- 11 a. The safety of the Bard IVC Filters;
12 b. The efficacy of the Bard IVC Filters;
13 c. The rate of failure of the Bard IVC Filters;
14 d. The pre-market testing of the Bard IVC Filters;
15 e. The approved uses of the Bard IVC Filters; and 16 f. The ability to retrieve the device at any time over a person's life.

17 247. The information Bard distributed to the public, the medical community, and 18 Plaintiffs was in the form of reports, press releases, advertising campaigns, labeling materials,
19 print advertisements, commercial media containing material representations, and instructions
20 for use, as well as through their officers, directors, agents, and representatives.

21 248. These materials contained false and misleading material representations, which 22 included: that Bard IVC Filters were safe and fit when used for their intended purpose or in a

1 reasonably foreseeable manner; that they did not pose dangerous health risks in excess of 2 those associated with the use of other similar IVC filters; that any and all side effects were 3 accurately reflected in the warnings; and that they were adequately tested to withstand normal
4 placement within the human body.

5 249. Bard made the foregoing misrepresentations knowing that they were false or 6 without reasonable basis. These materials included instructions for use and a warning
7 document that was included in the package of Bard IVC Filters that were implanted in 8 Plaintiffs.

9 250. Bard's intent and purpose in making these misrepresentations was to deceive and 10 defraud the public and the medical community, including Plaintiffs' health care providers; to 11 gain the confidence of the public and the medical community, including Plaintiffs' health care
12 providers; to falsely assure the public and the medical community of the quality of Bard IVC
13 Filters and their fitness for use; and to induce the public and the medical community, including 14 Plaintiffs' healthcare providers to request, recommend, prescribe, implant, purchase, and 15 continue to use Bard IVC Filters, all in reliance on Bard's misrepresentations.

16 251. The foregoing representations and omissions by Bard were false.

17 252. Bard IVC Filters are not safe, fit, and effective for human use in their intended 18 and reasonably foreseeable manner.

19 253. Further, the use of Bard IVC Filters is hazardous to the users' health, and Bard
20 IVC Filters have a serious propensity to cause users to suffer serious injuries, including 21 without limitation the injuries Plaintiffs suffered.
22

1 254. Finally, Bard IVC Filters have a statistically significant higher rate of failure and 2 injury than do other comparable IVC filters.

3 255. In reliance upon the false and negligent misrepresentations and omissions made
4 by Bard, Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' health care providers were induced to, and did use Bard IVC
5 Filters, thereby causing Plaintiffs to sustain severe and permanent personal injuries and death.

6 256. Bard knew and had reason to know that Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs' health care
7 providers, and the general medical community did not have the ability to determine the true
8 facts intentionally and/or negligently concealed and misrepresented by Bard, and would not 9 have prescribed and implanted Bard IVC Filters if the true facts regarding Bard IVC Filters
10 had not been concealed and misrepresented by Bard.

11 257. Bard had sole access to material facts concerning the defective nature of the 12 products and their propensities to cause serious and dangerous side effects in the form of 13 dangerous injuries and damages to persons who were implanted with Bard IVC Filters.

14 258. At the time Bard failed to disclose and intentionally misrepresented the 15 foregoing facts, and at the time Plaintiffs used Bard IVC Filters, Plaintiff and Plaintiffs' health
16 care providers were unaware of Bard's misrepresentations and omissions.

17 259. As a direct and proximate result of Bard's fraudulent misrepresentations,
18 Plaintiffs suffered Injuries and Damages.

19 COUNT XIII: FRAUDULENT CONCEALMENT

20 260. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all prior allegations.

21 261. In marketing and selling Bard IVC Filters, Bard concealed material facts from 22 Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' healthcare providers.

1 262. These concealed material facts include, but are not limited to:

- 2 a. Bard IVC Filters were unsafe and not fit when used for their intended 3 purpose or in a reasonably foreseeable manner;
- 4 b. Bard IVC Filters posed dangerous health risks in excess of those 5 associated with the use of other similar IVC filters;
- 6 c. That there were additional side effects related to implantation and use of 7 Bard IVC Filters that were not accurately and completely reflected in the 8 warnings associated with Bard IVC Filters; and
- 9 d. That Bard IVC Filters were not adequately tested to withstand normal
10 placement within the human body.

11 263. Plaintiff and Plaintiffs' healthcare providers were not aware of these and other 12 facts concealed by Bard.

13 264. In concealing these and other facts, Bard intended to deceive Plaintiffs and 14 Plaintiffs' healthcare providers.

15 265. Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' healthcare providers were ignorant of and could not 16 reasonably discover the facts Bard fraudulently concealed and reasonably and justifiably relied 17 on Bard's representations concerning the supposed safety and efficacy of Bard IVC Filters.

18 266. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' fraudulent concealment of 19 material facts, Plaintiffs suffered Injuries and Damages.

20 COUNT XIV: VIOLATIONS OF APPLICABLE STATE LAW PROHIBITING
21 CONSUMER FRAUD AND UNFAIR DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICES

22 267. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all prior allegations.

1 268. Bard had a statutory duty to refrain from unfair or deceptive acts or practices in 2 the sale and promotion of Bard IVC Filters.

3 269. Bard knowingly, deliberately, willfully and/or wantonly engaged in unfair,
4 unconscionable, deceptive, fraudulent, and misleading acts or practices in violation of all
5 states' consumer protection laws identified below.

6 270. Through its false, untrue, and misleading promotion of Bard IVC Filters, Bard
7 induced Plaintiffs to purchase and/or pay for the purchase of Bard IVC Filters.

8 271. Bard misrepresented the alleged benefits and characteristics of Bard IVC Filters;
9 suppressed, omitted, concealed, and failed to disclose material information concerning known
10 adverse effects of Bard IVC Filters; misrepresented the quality and efficacy of Bard IVC
11 Filters as compared to much lower-cost alternatives; misrepresented and advertised that 12 Bard IVC Filters were of a particular standard, quality, or grade that they were not;
13 misrepresented Bard IVC Filters in such a manner that later, on disclosure of the true facts,
14 there was a likelihood that Plaintiffs would have opted for an alternative IVC filter or method
15 of preventing pulmonary emboli.

16 272. Bard's conduct created a likelihood of, and in fact caused, confusion and 17 misunderstanding.

18 273. Bard's conduct misled, deceived, and damaged Plaintiffs, and Bard's fraudulent,
19 misleading, and deceptive conduct was perpetrated with an intent that Plaintiffs rely on said
20 conduct by purchasing and/or paying for purchases of Bard IVC Filters.

21 274. Moreover, Bard knowingly took advantage of Plaintiffs, who were unable to 22 protect their own interests due to ignorance of the harmful adverse effects of Bard IVC Filters.

1 275. Bard's conduct was willful, outrageous, immoral, unethical, oppressive,
2 unscrupulous, unconscionable, and substantially injurious to Plaintiffs and offends the public 3 conscience.

4 276. Plaintiffs purchased Bard's IVC Filters primarily for personal, family, or 5 household purposes.

6 277. As a result of Bard's violative conduct in each of the Plaintiffs' respective states,
7 Plaintiffs purchased and/or paid for purchases of Bard IVC Filters that were not made for 8 resale.

9 278. Bard engaged in unfair competition or deceptive acts or practices in violation of 10 Alaska Stat. § 45.50.471, et seq.

11 279. Bard engaged in unfair competition or deceptive acts or practices in violation of 12 Ariz. Rev. Stat. § 44-1522, et seq.

14 Ark. Code § 4-88-101, et seq.

16 Cal. Civ. Code § 1770, et seq. (the "Consumer Legal Remedies Act"), and Cal. Bus. & Prof.

18 282. Bard engaged in unfair competition or deceptive acts or practices in violation of 19 Colo. Rev. Stat. § 6-1-105, et seq.

20 283. Bard engaged in unfair competition or deceptive acts or practices in violation of 21 Conn. Gen. Stat. § 42-110b, et seq.

1 284. Bard engaged in unfair competition or deceptive acts or practices in violation of 2 D.C. Code Ann. § 28-3901, et seq.

3 285. Bard engaged in unfair competition or deceptive acts or practices in violation of 4 6 Del. Code Ann. § 2513, et seq.

5 286. Bard engaged in unfair competition or deceptive acts or practices in violation of 6 Fla. Stat. § 501.201, et seq.

7 287. Bard engaged in unfair competition or deceptive acts or practices in violation of 8 Haw. Rev. Stat. § 480, et seq.

9 288. Bard engaged in unfair competition or deceptive acts or practices in violation of 10 Idaho Code § 48-601, et seq.

11 289. Bard engaged in unfair competition or deceptive acts or practices in violation of 12 815 Illinois L.C.S. §§ 505/2, 510/2, et seq.

13 290. Bard engaged in unfair competition or deceptive acts or practices in violation of 14 Ind. Code § 24-5-0.5, et seq.

IN RE: BARD IVC FILTERS

No. MDL-15-02641-PHX-DGC

CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER
NO. 5

(Plaintiff and Defendant Profile Forms)

The parties have agreed upon the use of an abbreviated Plaintiff Profile Form (“PPF”) (Exhibit 1) attached to this Order. Except as expressly noted herein, the PPF shall be completed in each currently pending case, and in all cases that become part of this MDL by virtue of being filed in, removed to, or transferred to this Court on or after the date of this Order.

Each plaintiff in currently filed cases (except as noted herein) shall submit a completed PPF to defendants within 60 days of the date of this Order. In cases that have been filed in, removed to, or transferred to this MDL on or after the date of this Order, each plaintiff shall submit a completed PPF to defendants within 60 days of filing the complaint. Each plaintiff is required to provide defendants with a PPF that is substantially complete in all respects, answering every question in the PPF, even if a plaintiff can answer the question in good faith only by indicating “not applicable” or “unknown.” The PPF shall be signed by the plaintiff under penalty of perjury. If a plaintiff is suing in a representative or derivative capacity, the PPF shall be completed by the person with the legal authority to represent the estate or the person under legal disability. Plaintiff spouses with a claim for loss of consortium shall also sign the PPF, attesting that the responses made to the loss of consortium questions in the PPF

1 are true and correct to the best of his or her knowledge, information and belief, formed after 2 due diligence and reasonable inquiry.

3 A completed PPF shall be considered interrogatory answers under Fed. R. Civ. P. 33
4 and responses to requests for production under Fed. R. Civ. P. 34, and will be governed by 5 the standards applicable to written discovery under Federal Rules 26 through 37. The 6 interrogatories and requests for production in the PPF shall be answered without objection as 7 to the question posed in the agreed upon PPF. This section does not prohibit a plaintiff from 8 withholding or redacting information from medical or other records provided with the PPF
9 based upon a recognized privilege. If information is withheld or redacted on the basis of 10 privilege, plaintiff shall provide defendants with a privilege log that complies with Fed. R.
11 Civ. P. 26(b)(5) simultaneously with the submission of the PPF.

12 If a plaintiff does not submit a PPF within the time specified in this Order, defendants
13 shall mail an overdue letter by e-mail and U.S. mail to Plaintiffs' Co-Lead Counsel and the 14 plaintiffs' individual representative counsel, stating that defendants may move to dismiss that 15 plaintiff's case within 20 days of receipt of the letter. If no PPF is received within those 20 16 additional days, defendants may move immediately to dismiss that plaintiff's case. If 17 defendants receive a PPF that is not substantially complete, defendants' counsel shall send a 18 deficiency letter within 14 days of receipt of a PPF, as applicable by e-mail and U.S. mail to 19 Plaintiffs' Co-Lead Counsel and the plaintiffs' individual representative counsel, identifying 20 the purported deficiencies. Plaintiff shall have 20 days from receipt of that letter to serve a 21 PPF that is substantially complete in all respects. This letter shall include sufficient detail for 22 the parties to meet and confer regarding the alleged deficiencies.

23 Within 45 days of receipt of a substantially complete PPF for an individual plaintiff,
24 the defendants shall provide the plaintiff with a completed Defendants' Profile Form

26 The procedures outlined in this Order shall not apply to the following cases:

24 Defendants C. R. Bard, Inc. ("Bard") and Bard Peripheral Vascular, Inc. ("BPV")
25 (Bard and BPV are collectively "Defendants") hereby answer the Plaintiffs' Master
26 Complaint for Damages for Individual Claims ("Complaint" or "Plaintiffs' Complaint").
27 Defendants hereby deny any and all Causes of Action or factual allegations added by any 28 individual plaintiff through use of the Short Form Complaint for Damages. Defendants reserve the right to seek dismissal of any case adopting the Complaint that is inconsistent

1 with the terms of any pretrial or case management order entered by the Court in this matter,
2 or for any other reason.

3 Defendants deny all allegations set forth in the Master Complaint except to the extent
4 such allegations are specifically admitted below.

5 RESPONSE TO SPECIFIC ALLEGATIONS

6 1. Defendants admit that Plaintiffs purport to bring this action as stated in the 7 Complaint, but Defendants deny that there is any legal or factual basis for such relief.
8 Defendants admit that Bard owns a facility where inferior vena cava filters are manufactured.
9 Defendants further admit that BPV designs, sells, markets, and distributes inferior vena cava
10 filters. Defendants deny the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 1 of Plaintiffs'
11 Complaint.

12 2. Defendants admit that Bard owns a facility where inferior vena cava filters are 13 manufactured, including previously or currently manufacturing filters under the trade names
14 Recovery®, G2®, G2®X, Eclipse®, Meridian®, and Denali® (hereinafter "Bard Inferior 15 Vena Cava Filters"). Defendants further admit that BPV designs, sells, markets, and 16 distributes inferior vena cava filters, including currently or previously designing, selling,
17 marketing or distributing filters under the trade names Recovery®, G2®, G2®X, Eclipse®, 18 Meridian®, and Denali®. No response is required with respect to the statement contained in 19 Paragraph 2 of Plaintiffs' Complaint pertaining to the Recovery® Cone. To the extent a 20 response is required, Defendants deny the propriety of Plaintiffs' reference to the Recovery®
21 Cone Removal System as a "Bard IVC Filter," as suggested in Paragraph 2 of Plaintiffs'

24 ¹ Defendants further deny the propriety of the use, reference, or incorporation, express or 25 implied, of the term "Bard IVC Filter" to include the Recovery® Cone Removal System
26 throughout Plaintiffs' Complaint. Defendants expressly deny that the Recovery® Cone
27 Removal System is an inferior vena cava filter and deny that any plaintiff alleges injury
28 indirectly or directly related to the Recovery® Cone Removal System. Defendants expressly incorporate their denial to the allegation that the Recovery® Cone Removal System may be properly designated as an inferior vena cava filter in response to every allegation in Plaintiffs' Complaint wherein the term "Bard IVC Filters" is included. To aid in clarity, Defendants will utilize the term "Bard Inferior Vena Cava Filters"

Furthermore, responding to the unnumbered Paragraph, including sub-parts numbered Paragraphs A-K, following the heading “PRAYER FOR RELIEF” and beginning “WHEREFORE,” Defendants deny the allegations contained in such Paragraph and sub-parts.

23 DEFENSES

1. Plaintiffs' Complaint filed herein fails to state a claim or claims upon which relief can be granted under Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

1 2. The sole proximate cause of Plaintiffs' damages, if any were sustained, was the 2 negligence of a person or persons or entity for whose acts or omissions Defendants were and 3 are in no way liable.

4 3. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statutes of 5 limitations and/or statute of repose.

6 4. If Plaintiffs have been damaged, which Defendants deny, any recovery by 7 Plaintiffs is barred to the extent Plaintiffs voluntarily exposed themselves to a known risk
8 and/or failed to mitigate their alleged damages. To the extent Plaintiffs have failed to mitigate 9 their alleged damages, any recovery shall not include alleged damages that could have been 10 avoided by reasonable care and diligence.

11 5. If Plaintiffs have been damaged, which Defendants deny, such damages were 12 caused by the negligence or fault of Plaintiffs.

13 6. If Plaintiffs have been damaged, which Defendants deny, such damages were 14 caused by the negligence or fault of persons and/or entities for whose conduct Defendants are 15 not legally responsible.

16 7. The conduct of Defendants and the subject product at all times conformed with 17 the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetics Act, 21 U.S.C. § 301, et seq., and other pertinent 18 federal statutes and regulations. Accordingly, Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in 19 part, under the doctrine of federal preemption, and granting the relief requested would 20 impermissibly infringe upon and conflict with federal laws, regulations, and policies in 21 violation of the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution.

22 8. If Plaintiffs have been damaged, which Defendants deny, such damages were 23 caused by unforeseeable, independent, intervening, and/or superseding events for which 24 Defendants are not legally responsible.

25 9. There was no defect in the products at issue with the result that Plaintiffs are 26 not entitled to recover against Defendants in this cause.

1 10. If there were any defect in the products – and Defendants deny that there were 2 any defects – nevertheless, there was no causal connection between any alleged defect and 3 the products on the one hand and any damage to Plaintiffs on the other with the result that 4 Plaintiffs are not entitled to recover against Defendants in this cause.

5 11. Plaintiffs' injuries, losses or damages, if any, were caused by or contributed to 6 by other persons or entities that are severally liable for all or part of Plaintiffs' alleged 7 injuries, losses or damages. If Defendants are held liable to Plaintiffs, which liability is 8 specifically denied, Defendants are entitled to contribution, set-off, and/or indemnification,
9 either in whole or in part, from all persons or entities whose negligence or fault proximately
10 caused or contributed to cause Plaintiffs' alleged damages.

11 12. Plaintiffs' claims are barred to the extent that the injuries alleged in the 12 Plaintiffs' Complaint were caused by the abuse, misuse, abnormal use, or use of the products
13 at issue in a manner not intended by Defendants and over which Defendants had no control.

14 13. Plaintiffs' claims are barred to the extent that the injuries alleged in the 15 Plaintiffs' Complaint were caused by a substantial change in the products after leaving the 16 possession, custody, and control of Defendants.

17 14. Plaintiffs' breach of warranty claims are barred because: (1) Defendants did
18 not make any warranties, express or implied, to Plaintiffs; (2) there was a lack of privity
19 between Defendants and Plaintiffs; and (3) notice of an alleged breach was not given to the 20 seller or Defendants.

21 15. Plaintiffs' claims for breach of implied warranty must fail because the products
22 were not used for its ordinary purpose.

23 16. Defendants neither had nor breached any alleged duty to warn with respect to 24 the products, with the result that Plaintiffs are not entitled to recover in this cause.

25 17. Plaintiffs' claims are barred by Defendants' dissemination of legally adequate 26 warnings and instructions to learned intermediaries.

1 18. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiffs' physicians were in the position of 2 sophisticated purchasers, fully knowledgeable and informed with respect to the risks and 3 benefits of the subject products.

4 19. If Plaintiffs have been damaged, which Defendants deny, the actions of persons
5 or entities for whose conduct Defendants are not legally responsible and the independent 6 knowledge of these persons or entities of the risks inherent in the use of the products and 7 other independent causes, constitute an intervening and superseding cause of Plaintiffs'
8 alleged damages.

9 20. To the extent that injuries and damages sustained by Plaintiffs, as alleged in 10 Plaintiffs' Complaint, were caused directly, solely, and proximately by sensitivities, medical 11 conditions, and idiosyncrasies peculiar to Plaintiffs not found in the general public, they were 12 unknown, unknowable, or not reasonably foreseeable to Defendants.

13 21. Defendants believe, and upon that ground allege, that Plaintiffs were advised of 14 the risks associated with the matters alleged in Plaintiffs' Complaint and knowingly and 15 voluntarily assumed them. Pursuant to the doctrine of assumption of the risk, informed 16 consent, release, waiver, or comparative fault, this conduct bars in whole or in part the 17 damages that Plaintiffs seek to recover herein.

18 22. At all relevant times during which the devices at issue were designed,
19 developed, manufactured, and sold, the devices were reasonably safe and reasonably fit for 20 their intended use, were not defective or unreasonably dangerous, and were accompanied by 21 proper warnings, information, and instructions, all pursuant to generally recognized
22 prevailing industry standards and state-of-the-art in existence at the time.

23 23. Plaintiffs' claims are barred because Plaintiffs suffered no injury or damages as 24 a result of the alleged conduct and do not have any right, standing, or competency to maintain 25 claims for damages or other relief.

26 24. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of waiver, 27 estoppel, and/or laches.
28

1 25. If Plaintiffs suffered any damages or injuries, which are denied, Defendants
2 state that Plaintiffs' recovery is barred, in whole or in part, or subject to reduction, under the 3 doctrines of contributory and/or comparative negligence.

4 26. In the further alternative, and only in the event that it is determined that 5 Plaintiffs are entitled to recover against Defendants, recovery should be reduced in proportion 6 to the degree or percentage of negligence, fault or exposure to products attributable to 7 Plaintiffs, any other defendants, third-party defendants, or other persons, including any party
8 immune because bankruptcy renders them immune from further litigation, as well as any 9 party, co-defendant, or non-parties with whom Plaintiffs have settled or may settle in the 10 future.

11 27. Should Defendants be held liable to Plaintiffs, which liability is specifically
12 denied, Defendants would be entitled to a setoff for the total of all amounts paid to Plaintiffs 13 from all collateral sources.

14 28. Plaintiffs' claims may be barred, in whole or in part, from seeking recovery
15 against Defendants pursuant to the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, release of 16 claims, and the prohibition on double recovery for the same injury.

17 29. The injuries and damages allegedly sustained by Plaintiffs may be due to the 18 operation of nature or idiosyncratic reaction(s) and/or pre-existing condition(s) in Plaintiffs 19 over which Defendants had no control.

20 30. The conduct of Defendants and all activities with respect to the subject product
21 have been and are under the supervision of the Federal Food and Drug Administration
22 ("FDA"). Accordingly, this action, including any claims for monetary and/or injunctive relief, 23 is barred by the doctrine of primary jurisdiction and exhaustion of administrative remedies.

24 31. Defendants assert any and all defenses, claims, credits, offsets, or remedies
25 provided by the Restatements (Second and Third) of Torts and reserve the right to amend 26 their Answer to file such further pleadings as are necessary to preserve and assert such 27 defenses, claims, credits, offsets, or remedies.

1 32. The device at issue complied with any applicable product safety statute or 2 administrative regulation, and therefore Plaintiffs' defective design and warnings-based 3 claims are barred under the Restatement (Third) of Torts: Products Liability § 4, et seq. and 4 comments thereto.

5 33. Plaintiffs cannot show that any reasonable alternative design would have
6 rendered Bard's Inferior Vena Cava Filters as alleged in Plaintiffs' Complaint to be safer
7 overall under the Restatement (Third) of Product Liability § 2, cmt. f, nor could Defendants
8 have known of any alternative design that may be identified by Plaintiffs.

9 34. The devices at issue were not sold in a defective condition unreasonably 10 dangerous to the user or consumer, and therefore Plaintiffs' claims are barred under the 11 Restatement (Second) of Torts: Products Liability § 402A and comments thereto, and 12 comparable provisions of the Restatement (Third) of Torts (Products Liability).

13 35. At all relevant times during which the devices at issue were designed,
14 developed, manufactured, and sold, the devices were reasonably safe and reasonably fit for 15 their intended use, were not defective or unreasonably dangerous, and were accompanied by 16 proper warnings, information, and instructions, all pursuant to generally recognized
17 prevailing industry standards and state-of-the-art in existence at the time.

18 36. Defendants specifically plead all affirmative defenses under the Uniform
19 Commercial Code ("UCC") now existing or which may arise in the future, including those 20 defenses provided by UCC §§ 2-607 and 2-709.

21 37. Plaintiffs' alleged damages, if any, should be apportioned among all parties at 22 fault, and any non-parties at fault, pursuant to the Uniform Contribution Among Tortfeasors 23 Act.

24 38. No act or omission of Defendants was malicious, willful, wanton, reckless, or 25 grossly negligent, and, therefore, any award of punitive damages is barred.

26 39. To the extent the claims asserted in Plaintiffs' Complaint are based on a theory
27 providing for liability without proof of defect and proof of causation, the claims violate 28

1 Defendants' rights under the Constitution of the United States and analogous provisions of 2 the various states' constitutions.

3 40. To the extent Plaintiffs' claims are based on alleged misrepresentations made to 4 the FDA, such claims are barred pursuant to Buckman Co. v. Plaintiffs' Legal Committee, 531
5 U.S. 341 (2001).

6 41. Defendants are entitled to, and claim the benefit of, all defenses and 7 presumptions set forth in or arising from any rule of law or statute that may be applicable.

8 42. Regarding Plaintiffs' demand for punitive damages, Defendants specifically 9 incorporate by reference any and all standards of limitations regarding the determination 10 and/or enforceability of punitive damages awards that arose in the decisions of BMW of 11 No. America v. Gore, 517 U.S. 559 (1996); Cooper Industries, Inc. v. Leatherman Tool
12 Group, Inc., 532 U.S. 424 (2001); State Farm Mut. Auto Ins. Co. v. Campbell, 123 S. Ct.
13 1513 (2003); and Exxon Shipping Co. v. Baker, No. 07-219, 2008 U.S. LEXIS 5263 (U.S.
14 June 25, 2008) and their progeny as well as other similar cases under both federal and state 15 law.

16 43. Plaintiffs' claims for punitive or exemplary damages violate, and are therefore 17 barred by, the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of 18 the United States of America, and similar provisions of the various states' constitutions, on 19 grounds including the following:

20 (a) it is a violation of the Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses of the 21 Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution to impose punitive 22 damages, which are penal in nature, against a civil defendant upon the plaintiffs 23 satisfying a burden of proof which is less than the "beyond a reasonable doubt"
24 burden of proof required in criminal cases;

25 (b) the procedures pursuant to which punitive damages are awarded may result in 26 the award of joint and several judgments against multiple defendants for 27 different alleged acts of wrongdoing, which infringes upon the Due Process and 28

1 Equal Protection Clauses of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States
2 Constitution;

3 (c) the procedures to which punitive damages are awarded fail to provide a
4 reasonable limit on the amount of the award against Defendants, which thereby
5 violates the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United 6 States Constitution;

7 (d) the procedures pursuant to which punitive damages are awarded fail to provide 8 specific standards for the amount of the award of punitive damages which 9 thereby violates the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the 10 United States Constitution;

11 (e) the procedures pursuant to which punitive damages are awarded result in the 12 imposition of different penalties for the same or similar acts, and thus violate 13 the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States
14 Constitution;

15 (f) the procedures pursuant to which punitive damages are awarded permit the 16 imposition of punitive damages in excess of the maximum criminal fine for the 17 same or similar conduct, which thereby infringes upon the Due Process Clause
18 of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments and the Equal Protection Clause of the 19 Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution;

20 (g) the procedures pursuant to which punitive damages are awarded permit the 21 imposition of excessive fines in violation of the Eighth Amendment of the 22 United States Constitution;

23 (h) the award of punitive damages to the plaintiff in this action would constitute a 24 deprivation of property without due process of law; and

25 (i) the procedures pursuant to which punitive damages are awarded permit the 26 imposition of an excessive fine and penalty.
27
28

1 44. Plaintiffs have failed to plead their fraud claims with the particularity required
2 under applicable state's statutory and/or common law.

3 45. Plaintiffs' cases may be subject to dismissal or transfer under the doctrine of 4 forum non conveniens.

5 46. Plaintiffs' product liability claims are barred because the benefits of the 6 products outweighed their risks.

7 47. Venue may be improper in any individual case where the plaintiff does not 8 reside in the forum wherein his or her Complaint was filed or cannot otherwise establish an 9 independent basis for venue in that forum and any such claims should be dismissed on this 10 basis.

11 48. The damages claimed by Plaintiffs are not recoverable, in whole or in part,
12 under the various applicable states' laws.

13 49. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent Plaintiffs seek 14 damages in excess of applicable state-law caps and limits on recovery of damages or of 15 specific categories of damages.

16 50. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by insufficiency of service
17 and/or insufficiency of service of process.

18 51. Defendants are entitled to and claim the benefits of all defenses and 19 presumptions set forth in or arising from any rule of law or statute in this state or any other 20 state whose law is deemed to apply in this case.

21 52. Defendants expressly reserve the right to raise as an affirmative defense that 22 Plaintiffs have failed to join all parties necessary for a just adjudication of this action, should 23 discovery reveal the existence of facts to support such defense.

24 53. Defendants assert that choice of law rules should determine which jurisdiction's 25 laws govern this case and expressly reserve the right to supplement this answer with any 26 defenses that may be available to it under the law of the jurisdictions determined to apply to it 27 in accordance with choice of law rules.

8 Defendants C. R. Bard, Inc. and Bard Peripheral Vascular, Inc. demand a trial by jury 9 on all issues appropriate for jury determination.

10 WHEREFORE, Defendants aver that Plaintiffs are not entitled to the relief demanded
11 in the Plaintiffs' Complaint, and these Defendants, having fully answered, pray that this 12 action against them be dismissed and that they be awarded their costs in defending this action
13 and that they be granted such other and further relief as the Court deems just and appropriate.

8 A completed PPF shall be considered interrogatory answers under Fed. R. Civ. P.
9 33 and responses to requests for production under Fed. R. Civ. P. 34, and will be governed
10 by the standards applicable to written discovery under Federal Rules 26 through 37. The 11 interrogatories and requests for production in the PPF shall be answered without objection
12 as to the question posed in the agreed upon PPF. This section does not prohibit a plaintiff 13 from withholding or redacting information from medical or other records provided with 14 the PPF based upon a recognized privilege. If information is withheld or redacted on the 15 basis of privilege, plaintiff shall provide defendants with a privilege log that complies
16 with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5) simultaneously with the submission of the PPF.

17 If a plaintiff does not submit a PPF within the time specified in this Order,
18 defendants shall mail an overdue letter by e-mail and U.S. mail to Plaintiffs' Co-Lead
19 Counsel and the plaintiffs' individual representative counsel, stating that defendants may 20 move to dismiss that plaintiff's case within 20 days of receipt of the letter. If no PPF is 21 received within those 20 additional days, defendants may move immediately to dismiss
22 that plaintiff's case. If defendants receive a PPF that is not substantially complete, 23 defendants' counsel shall send a deficiency letter within 14 days of receipt of a PPF, as 24 applicable by e-mail and U.S. mail to Plaintiffs' Co-Lead Counsel and the plaintiffs'
25 individual representative counsel, identifying the purported deficiencies. Plaintiff shall 26 have 20 days from receipt of that letter to serve a PPF that is substantially complete in all 27
28

1 respects. This letter shall include sufficient detail for the parties to meet and confer
2 regarding the alleged deficiencies.

3 Within 45 days of receipt of a substantially complete PPF for an individual
4 plaintiff, the defendants shall provide the plaintiff with a completed Defendants' Profile
5 Form (DPF) (Exhibit 2) attached to this order. A completed DPF shall be considered
6 interrogatory answers under Fed. R. Civ. P. 33 and responses to requests for production
7 under Fed. R. Civ. P. 34, and will be governed by the standards applicable to written 8 discovery under Federal Rules 26 through 37. The interrogatories and requests for 9 production in the DPF shall be answered without objection as to the question posed in the 10 agreed upon DPF. This section does not prohibit a defendant from withholding or 11 redacting information from medical or other records provided with the DPF based upon a 12 recognized privilege. If information is withheld or redacted on the basis of privilege, 13 defendants shall provide plaintiff with a privilege log that complies with Fed. R. Civ. P.
14 26(b)(5) simultaneously with the submission of the DPF.

15 If the plaintiff receives a DPF that is not substantially complete, plaintiff's counsel
16 shall send a deficiency letter within 14 days of receipt of a DPF, as applicable by e-mail
17 and U.S. mail to Defendants' Lead Counsel identifying the purported deficiencies.
18 Defendants shall have 20 days from receipt of that letter to serve a DPF that is 19 substantially complete in all respects. This letter shall include sufficient detail for the

16 The parties have submitted a Master Long Form Complaint and Jury Demand
17 (previously docketed as Doc. 303-1) and a Master Responsive Pleading (previously

20 The parties have also submitted a proposed Amended Short Form Complaint, a copy of 21 which is attached to this order. The Court also finds these proposed pleadings to be 22 sufficient.

23 IT IS ORDERED:

The following cases will not be governed by the Master Complaint and Master Responsive Pleading, but will continue to be governed by the complaints (including any amended complaints) and answers filed in the various transferor courts prior to transfer:

Plaintiff	Original Jurisdiction
1. Cason, Pamela	GA – N.D. Ga. 1:12-cv-1288

12. Smith, Erin	TX – E.D. Tex. 1:13-cv-633
13. Tillman, Lessie	FL – M.D. Fla. 3:13-cv-222

On or after December 28, 2015, any plaintiff whose case would be subject to transfer to MDL 2641 may file his or her case directly in this Court by using the Short Form Complaint (Doc. 363). After February 23, 2016, Plaintiffs may use the Amended Short Form Complaint attached to this Order. If such a case is filed in this Court without the use of the Short Form Complaint or Amended Short Form Complaint, Plaintiffs' Co-Lead Counsel shall promptly advise the filing party to file an amended complaint using the Short Form Complaint or Amended Short Form Complaint. If the filing party fails to do so, Plaintiffs' Co-Lead Counsel shall promptly notify the Court.

Defendants are not required to file answers to Short Form Complaints or Amended Short Form Complaints. An Entry of Appearance shall constitute a denial of all allegations in the Short Form Complaints or Amended Short Form Complaints except as herein provided, and an assertion of all defenses included in the Master Responsive Pleading. By filing an Entry of Appearance in response to a Short Form Complaint or Amended Short Form Complaint, in lieu of an answer, Defendants do not waive any defenses, including jurisdictional and service defenses.

Civil actions in this MDL were transferred to this Court by the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation for coordinated or consolidated pretrial proceedings pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1407. Upon completion of the pretrial proceedings related to a civil action as

1 determined by this Court, the case shall be transferred pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a) or
2 § 1406(a) to the District Court identified in the Short Form Complaint or Amended Short
3 Form Complaint, provided the parties choose not to waive Lexecon, Inc. v. Milberg Weiss
4 Bershad Hynes & Lerach, 523 U.S. 26 (1998). The fact that a case was filed directly in 5 this District and MDL proceeding shall not constitute a determination by this Court that 6 jurisdiction or venue are proper in this District, and shall not result in this Court being 7 deemed the “transferor court” for purposes of this MDL. In addition, filing a Short Form
8 Complaint or Amended Short Form Complaint in this District shall have no impact on the 9 conflict of law rules to be applied to the case. Instead, the law of the jurisdiction where 10 the case is ultimately transferred will govern any conflict of law. Prior to transfer,
11 Defendants may object to the district specified in the Short Form Complaint or Amended 12 Short Form Complaint, based on venue or jurisdiction (including a lack of personal 13 jurisdiction based on Daimler AG v. Bauman, 134 S. Ct. 746 (2014)), and propose an 14 alternative jurisdiction for the Court’s consideration.

15 Subject to the conditions set forth in this order, Defendant C.R. Bard, Inc. and Bard
16 Peripheral Vascular, Inc. (collectively “Bard”) waive service of process in cases filed in 17 this Court using the Short Form Complaint or Amended Short Form Complaint and in 18 which they are named as defendants and one or more IVC filter products either
19 manufactured or distributed by Bard is alleged to be at issue. For such cases, Plaintiffs 20 shall send a Short Form Complaint or Amended Short Form Complaint and a request for 21 waiver of service pursuant to the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 4 to Richard B. North, Jr.
22 by email to richard.north@nelsonmullins.com; maria.turner@nelsonmullins.com; and
23 matthew.lerner@nelsonmullins.com. Counsel for Bard shall return the signed waiver
24 requests to the Court within the time permitted by Fed. R. Civ. P. 4. Plaintiffs submitting
25 a request for waiver shall not seek to hold Bard in default for failure to timely answer or 26 otherwise respond to a complaint in which service has been accomplished pursuant to the

1 terms of this order without first giving Bard written notice of the alleged default and ten
2 business days in which to cure any alleged default.

3 Prior to a Plaintiff's attorney filing a Short Form Complaint or Amended Short 4 Form Complaint in this Court, that attorney must register for or already have a District of 5 Arizona CM/ECF log-in name and password. If the Plaintiff's attorney does not already 6 have a District of Arizona CM/ECF log-in name and password, that attorney must file the 7 Short Form Complaint or Amended Short Form Complaint in paper form with the Clerk
8 of Court and simultaneously file an Application of Attorney for Admission to Practice Pro
9 Hac Vice pursuant to LRCiv 83.1(b)(2) (including all necessary attachments and filing 10 fee).

11 Additionally, with respect to cases which are originally filed in courts other than 12 this Court which are then subsequently transferred to MDL 2641 pursuant to 28 U.S.C.
13 § 1407, Defendants may file an Answer and General Denial with Respect to Cases
14 Subsequently Transferred to MDL 2641, incorporating the defenses and denials set forth
15 in the Master Responsive Pleading and generally denying the plaintiffs' allegations. This 16 short-form answer shall serve as the responsive pleading. Defendants shall have 60 days
17 from the date any such case is opened in this Court to file any motion for failure to state a 18 claim upon which relief may be granted pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) and 12(h)(2), and the 19 plaintiff(s) shall have 30 days to respond.

27 Complaint in this District shall have no impact on the conflict of law rules to be applied to 28

2 govern any conflict of law. Prior to transfer, Defendants may object to the district
3 specified in the Short Form, Amended Short Form, or Second Amended Short Form
